THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

The first 3 gospels, call synoptic Gospels because they tell many of the same narratives, list the Transfiguration as happening about 6 days after Jesus' first prediction of his passion and death. The experience was probably given to raise the spirits of the apostles. It was so good that Luke says that Peter wanted to set up booths or tents on the mountain so they could extend the experience.

SUNDAY READINGS:

First Reading – His clothing was snow bright.
(Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14)

Second Reading – We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven (2 Peter 1:16-19)

(Matthew 17: 1-9)
