PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Llevaron el burro, le echaron encima los mantos y Jesús montó en él. Muchos extendían su manto en el camino, y otros lo tapizaban con ramas cortadas en el campo. - Mc 11, 7-8

From the Pastor • Del Pastor

Dear Friends at St. Louise,

Here we go, pandemic or not, Holy Week 2021 is here! As you know, the Archdiocese has given us directions for the Holy Week liturgies so that we're doing all we can to protect everyone (refer to my column last week). Although we will miss having the washing of the feet on Holy Thursday and the physical touching or kissing of the cross on Good Friday, as well as the fullness of use of water at the baptisms at the Easter Vigil, we are grateful for what we can do – and just grateful for the fact that Holy Week will be celebrated in person in addition to being livestreamed. We will have overflow seating in the gym for most of the Easter Triduum celebrations, to allow as many people as possible to attend.

Whether you are able to attend in person or not, I strongly encourage you to do all you can observe these most holy days at home. Try to dedicate time to prayer, perhaps reading at least one of the Scripture readings for each celebration. If you are participating via livestream at home, do all you can to make the space where you are viewing a place of prayer. Clear away the clutter, light a candle, sit attentively. Even better, if possible, sit, stand and kneel along with those who are present at the celebration. Sometimes small gestures can make a big difference.

Please know that Fr. Carlos and I will especially have all of you in mind and heart – in our own prayers and as we celebrate the liturgies for this most sacred time of the year.

Have a blessed Holy Week!

Fr. Gary Zender

Queridos Amigos de Sta. Luisa:

¡Aquí vamos, pandemia o no, la Semana Santa de 2021 está aquí! Como ustedes saben, la Arquidiócesis nos ha dado indicaciones para las liturgias de Semana Santa, a fin de hacer todo lo que podamos para proteger a todos (revisen mi columna de la semana pasada). Aunque vamos a extrañar tener el lavatorio de pies el Jueves Santo; tocar o besar la cruz el Viernes Santo, así como la plenitud del uso del agua en los bautismos de la Vigilia Pascual, estamos agradecidos por lo que podemos hacer, y simplemente por el hecho de que celebraremos la Semana Santa en persona, además de la transmisión en vivo. Tendremos asientos extras en el gimnasio para las celebraciones del Triduo Pascual, para permitir el mayor número posible de personas.

Ya sea que ustedes puedan venir en persona o no, les recomiendo fuertemente hacer todo lo que puedan para observar estos días tan sagrados en casa. Traten de dedicar tiempo a la oración, tal vez leyendo cuando menos una lectura de las Escrituras para cada celebración. Si están participando desde su casa en la transmisión en vivo, hagan todo lo posible para que el espacio donde están sea un lugar de oración. Limpíen el desorden, enciendan una vela, siéntense atentamente. Aún mejor, si es posible, pónganse de pie y arrodillense con los que están presentes en la celebración. A veces los pequeños gestos hacen una gran diferencia.

Por favor sepan que el Padre Carlos y yo los tendremos a todos ustedes en la mente y en el corazón – en nuestras propias oraciones y al celebrar las liturgias de esta temporada, la más sagrada del año.

¡Tengan una bendecida Semana Santa!

Padre Gary Zender

Activities and Events

Nila Agostini, our Parish Office receptionist of almost 25 years, has been very ill, and our community have been wonderful in expressing their support. Nila wanted to let our parish know that she is most grateful for the support and prayers that have been poured out. Her heart is filled with gratitude for the kind and caring sentiments that folks have shared. Your continued prayers for Nila are very much welcomed. If you wish to send a greeting card or letter to Nila, please drop it off at the Parish Center and we'll make sure Nila gets it. Thank you.

Grief Support Group

Please watch the bulletin for announcements of virtual meetings via Zoom. We gather the 3rd Thursday of the month from 2-3:30PM. We gather to be present to each other in our pain and grief, accepting ourselves and each other as we are in the moment. We trust that our listening hearts offer healing and blessing to each other. By sharing our hurt we lighten our burden, support others and find hope and healing in our common experience. Watch for coming information and dates.

Immediate help is available!

If you are suffering grief for any reason and would like immediate support, please call David Gehrig at 425-214-5466 for help. Listening ears, caring hearts and experienced volunteers are available to walk with you along this painful road from loss to new life.

If you have questions or need assistance, the parish staff is here for you.

The Parish Office is currently closed but can be reached via phone at 425-747-4450 on Mondays from 11AM to 5PM and on Tuesdays through Fridays from 9AM to 5PM. Our staff contact list is on page 10 of the bulletin if you need to reach one of us directly via email or phone. The Parish Office and programs continue to operate based on current COVID-19 safety requirements issued by the state. We continue to schedule meetings and offer faith formation opportunities via Zoom. Read about these opportunities in the bulletin and join us. Be well and be blessed.

WALK EVERY STEP WITH CHRIST

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week.

Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY HAVEN'T CATHOLIC CHURCHES GONE THE WAY OF DISPOSABLE CUPS FOR WINE DISTRIBUTION?

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

CRS Rice Bowl shares stories of hope from CRS' work around the world. These stories are examples of how your Lenten alms are helping communities find solutions to problems like hunger and malnutrition.

PALM SUNDAY—SERVING THE SUFFERING CHRIST

As we enter Holy Week and celebrate Palm Sunday, let's reflect on how our Lord suffered from our indifference: those who proclaimed him king of Jerusalem were the same who called to crucify him. We recognize we are all one human family. Are we contributing to the suffering of our sisters and brothers with our indifference to their realities? How does our faith inspire us to care for them and share the gifts that God has bestowed on us? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, "hosanna to our King," out of one side of their mouths and, "crucify him," out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God's name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!

CCS Courtyard Renewal Project

On February 23, a client came to the offices of Catholic Community Services (CCS) and threatened the life of a staff member before taking his own life in the building's courtyard. The people of the Archdiocese of Seattle join CCS in mourning the tragedy of the life lost during this event.

As a sign of support and love, the Catholic parishes of King County are organizing a courtyard renewal project where the incident occurred. The courtyard is a space of peace and celebration for CCS. We are collecting funds to provide landscaping and art (including adding a potential water feature and a memorial rock with scripture). Any additional funds will be used on safety improvements. Above all, we ask for your prayers for the deceased, his family, and the CCS community during this time.

Financial contributions can be made online <https://ccswww.org/donate-ccs-courtyard-renewal-project/>.

For more information, please contact your deanery representative (Andrea L, Andrea M or Patrick). Thank you!
