From the Pastor • Del Pastor

Dear Friends at St. Louise,

June is the month for celebrating graduations and a wonderful solemnity, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This year the solemnity fell on June 11, the same day our 8th graders graduated from St. Louise School. The more I live life, the more I appreciate the power and the meaning of this important day in the life of the Church. I couldn't help but notice the words from the Preface of the Mass for that day, that Jesus "poured out blood and water from his pierced side . . . so that won over to the open heart of the Savior, all might draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation." The one word in particular that caught my attention was the word all. Jesus' salvation is for *all.

I am going to pick up from my earlier column about the meaning of marriage. In speaking of marriage I mentioned "irregular unions." As you know, the Church holds up valid sacramental marriage as the ideal, and teaches that all must abstain from sexual intimacy outside a valid sacramental marriage. "Irregular unions" generally means committed relationships that include sexual intimacy but that fall short of a valid sacramental marriage.

The Church will presume that a marriage between a man and a woman is "regular" or "valid" unless proven otherwise – no-one is asked to provide proof that they're validly married when they come to church! But, some examples: the most obvious "irregular union" would be one in which at least one party, Catholic or not, is civilly divorced and has remarried without an annulment. (In Luke 16:18 Jesus says, "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.") An annulment establishes that some key ingredient to forming a permanent bond was missing from the very beginning, and therefore a valid sacramental marriage was never established, so that the civilly divorced party is actually free to marry in the Church. Another case would be when a Catholic is married only civilly (before a judge), or through the marriage rite of another religion without proper delegation from the Catholic Church under canon law. A final example for heterosexual couples would be cohabitation, with or without promises by the parties as in common-law marriage or union libre. And, top of mind for many today, especially in June which is celebrated as Pride Month in the United States, are people in same-sex unions.

We all know, and in many cases are related to, Catholics who come under any one of these categories. Life is messy, and no one of us lives the Gospel values of love, service, fidelity and purity perfectly all the time. We humbly strive to do so together, assisted by God's grace, and we seek God's generous forgiveness when we fail.

Fr. Gary's article continues on page 3...

Queridos Amigos de Sta. Luisa:

Junio es el mes en que se celebran las graduaciones y una solemnidad maravillosa, la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Este año la solemnidad cayó el 11 de junio, el mismo día que nuestros chicos de 8° grado se graduaron de la Escuela de Sta. Luisa. Mientras más vivo, más aprecio el poder y el significado de este importante día en la vida de la Iglesia. No pude dejar de notar las palabras del Prefacio de la Misa de ese día, que Jesús "brotó sangre y agua de la herida de su costado . . . para que así, acercándose al corazón abierto del Salvador, todos puedan beber con gozo de la fuente de la salvación." La palabra que en particular captó mi atención fue la palabra todos. La salvación de Jesús es para *todos.

Ahora voy a retomar algo de una columna anterior, acerca del significado del matrimonio. Al hablar del matrimonio, mencioné las "uniones irregulares." Como ustedes saben, la Iglesia sostiene que el matrimonio sacramental válido es lo ideal, y sostiene la enseñanza de que todos deben abstenerse de intimidad sexual fuera del matrimonio sacramental válido. "Las uniones irregulares" generalmente significan relaciones comprometidas que incluyen intimidad sexual, pero que no cumplen como un matrimonio sacramental valido.

La Iglesia supone que un matrimonio entre un hombre y una mujer es "regular" o "válido" a menos que se pruebe lo contrario – ¡a nadie se le pide que proporcione una prueba de que está casado de forma válida cuando viene a la iglesia! Pero estos son algunos ejemplos: las "uniones irregulares" más obvias serían aquellas en las que una de las partes, católico o no, es divorciado civilmente y se ha vuelto a casar sin una anulación. (En Lucas 16:18 Jesús dice: "Cualquiera que se divorcie de su esposa y se case con otra mujer comete adulterio, y el hombre que se casa con una mujer divorciada comete adulterio.") Una anulación establece que un ingrediente clave para formar un lazo permanente estuvo faltando desde el principio, y por lo tanto un matrimonio sacramental válido nunca se estableció, y así la parte divorciada civilmente es libre para casarse por la Iglesia. Otro caso sería cuando un católico está casado solamente por lo civil, (ante un juez), o por medio del rito del matrimonio en otra religión, sin una adecuada delegación de la Iglesia Católica bajo la ley canónica. Un último ejemplo en las parejas heterosexuales sería la cohabitación, o unión libre, con o sin promesas por las partes. Y, un tema que interesa a muchos en la actualidad, especialmente en junio que se celebra el Mes del Orgullo en los Estados Unidos, es el de las uniones entre personas del mismo sexo.

Todos conocemos, y en muchos casos tenemos familiares católicos que caen bajo alguna de esas categorías. La vida es enredada y ninguno de nosotros vive de manera perfecta todo el tiempo los valores del Evangelio de amor, servicio, fidelidad y pureza. Humildemente intentamos hacer eso juntos, ayudados por la gracia de Dios, y buscamos el generoso perdón de Dios cuando fallamos.

The message of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a helpful way for us to approach both our own personal wounds and imperfections, and our relatives and friends who may be in irregular unions, bearing in mind that the life and love that Jesus pours from his Sacred Heart is for all. This means:

- Everyone is made in the image and likeness of God.
- We are all sinners, and we all need God's mercy and love.
- All are welcome to give praise and thanks to God at Mass, even if not everyone will receive communion.
- All persons must be treated with "respect, compassion and sensitivity," and in particular persons who are homosexual. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2358.)
- A Catholic who is conscious of grave sin may not receive communion without previous sacramental confession. The Church recognizes that it is for each individual to examine his or her own well-formed conscience in this regard.
- Conversion of heart is a gradual process for many people in regards to faith and morals. Although Jesus sets high ideals, by which we strive to live as his disciples, he also calls us as Church to meet people as they are, to accompany each other, and to help each other in the journey to live more and more like Christ.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Gary Zender

Children's Sacramental Preparation

Children who wish to prepare for the sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist must be at least 7 years of age and registered in our Children's Faith Formation Program or our school program. Family sessions for the immediate preparation of the sacraments will be held beginning in February 2022. Cost for the program is $60. Scholarships are available. Registration and a calendar of events is available on our parish website: www.stlouise.org. For further details, contact Geri Hanley at the Parish Office, 425 214-5464 or geri@stlouise.org.

Children's Faith Formation

What a year it has been! Our Children's Faith Formation program was offered as Family Faith Formation, with lessons sent home each week and a monthly in-person opportunity to gather. Our grateful thanks to our catechists and volunteers who made the program possible. It is our hope that beginning in the Fall, we will be able to return to in-person Sunday classes for children. Registration is now available on our parish website. The program will begin with a Children's Retreat Day on September 18 from 9AM until noon. Classes will resume on Sunday, October 3, from 8:30AM until 10AM. Children are invited to join our community at the Offertory of the Mass.
Class size is limited to 20 children. Early registration is encouraged. We are excited about sharing the Good News of the Gospel with the young people of our parish. If you have a question, please feel free to contact Geri Hanley at the Parish Office, 425 214-5464 or geri@stlouise.org.

Seeking Communications Professionals

Do you have professional experience in communications, marketing or online engagement? St. Louise is looking to put together a communications task force that will consist of 3 or 4 targeted meetings. This task force will develop a plan for best practices in communications for our parish. If you have professional experience and you are willing to help advise us as we move forward please email Katie O'Neill at katie@stlouise.org.

Inspiration for the week

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them.

El mensaje del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús nos ayuda a abordar nuestras propias heridas e imperfecciones personales, y también las de nuestros familiares y amigos que pueden estar en uniones irregulares, teniendo en cuenta que la vida y el amor que Jesús derrama desde su Sagrado Corazón es para todos. Esto significa que:

- Todos estamos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios.
- Todos somos pecadores, y todos necesitamos la misericordia y el amor de Dios.
- Todos somos bienvenidos a alabar y dar gracias a Dios en Misa, aunque no todos puedan recibir la comunión.
- Todas las personas deben ser tratadas con "respeto, compasión y sensibilidad," y en particular las personas homosexuales. (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, #2358.)
- Un católico que está consciente de un pecado grave no puede recibir la comunión sin previa confesión sacramental. La Iglesia reconoce que es responsabilidad de cada individuo examinar su conciencia bien formada en ese aspecto.
- La conversión del corazón es un proceso gradual para mucha gente en lo que se refiere a fe y a la moral. Aunque Jesús pone altos ideales, a los cuales nosotros aspiramos a vivir como sus discípulos, también nos llama como Iglesia a conocer a las personas como son, a acompañarnos unos a otros, y a ayudarnos en la jornada para vivir más y más como Cristo.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Padre Gary Zender
