ALL THINGS WELL: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The incident in today's Gospel is recorded only by Mark. The key line is what the crowd says at the end: "He has done all things well." In the Greek, this echoes the creation story, recalling that God saw all the things he had done and declared them good (see Genesis 1:31).

Mark also deliberately evokes Isaiah's promise, which we hear in today's First Reading - that God will make the deaf hear and the mute speak. He even uses a Greek word to describe the man's condition (mogilalon = "speech impediment") that's only found in one other place in the Bible - in the Greek translation of today's Isaiah passage, where the prophet describes the "dumb" singing.

The crowd recognizes that Jesus is doing what the prophet had foretold. But Mark wants us to see something far greater -- that, to use the words from today's First Reading: "Here is your God."

Notice how personal and physical the drama is in the Gospel. Our focus is drawn to a hand, a finger, ears, a tongue, spitting. In Jesus, Mark shows us, God has truly come in the flesh.

What He has done is to make all things new, a new creation (see Revelation 21:1-5).

As Isaiah promised, He has made the living waters of baptism flow in the desert of the world. He has set captives free from their sins, as we sing in today's Psalm. He has come that rich and poor might dine together in the Eucharistic feast, as James tells us in today's Epistle.

He has done for each of us what He did for that deaf mute. He has opened our ears to hear the Word of God, and loosed our tongues that we might sing praises to Him.

Let us then, in the Eucharist, again give thanks to our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. Let us say with Isaiah, Here is our God, He comes to save us. Let us be rich in faith, that we might inherit the kingdom promised to those who love Him.

GOSPEL READING: SEPT. 5, 2021

THE 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Again Jesus left the district of Tyre and went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the district of the Decapolis. And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"— that is, "Be opened!"— And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. He ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it. They were exceedingly astonished and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak." (Mark 7:31-37)

SAINT TERESA OF KOLKATA

FEAST DAY: SEPTEMBER 7

Raised in a deeply Catholic family in Albania, Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu joined the Sisters of Loreto in 1928 and took the name Teresa. The community sent her to Kolkata, India, where she taught children for two decades. In 1946 Teresa heard God's call to quench the thirst of Jesus by caring for the poorest of the poor. She left the Sisters of Loreto to rescue the sick and destitute in the slums of Kolkata, one at a time. Many volunteers soon joined her and she formed them into her religious order, the Missionaries of Charity. Teresa's manifest goodness and her unique media savvy attracted global attention, drawing many people to God. Many regard her as the greatest Catholic evangelist of the 20th century. She was beatified in 2003 and canonized in 2016.

OUR LADY OF HOPE PARISH CELEBRATION

Our Lady of Hope will have a parish celebration in honor of our Patroness and in thanksgiving for the many wonderful blessing she has secured for us over the years from her Son, Jesus.

On October 3rd, after the 10:30 Mass, we will have a grill-out and potluck lunch and share in each other's company and friendship as we begin the month of Mary.

PRAYER CHALLENGE!

In preparation for our parish Celebration at Our Lady of Hope, we will begin a parish wide Prayer Challenge! This is our loving response for Our Lady's call to prayer, especially for the conversion of sinners. The prayer challenge is this: to offer to Our Lady of Hope a large spiritual bouquet of prayers on weekend of the Celebration, in thanksgiving for her protection and asking for her help in restoring the faith of the lukewarm in our community: praying for hearts to opened to the Love of Jesus.

- In your packets you will find a card to fill out with the prayers that you will offer until October 3rd. Fill it out and turn it in. We will keep a tally of all the prayers and mortifications offered. Keep a copy for yourself!

- You will also find other cards to give to one or more members of your family or friends that have stopped coming to church. This card simply tells them that you and the whole parish of Our Lady of Hope are praying for them and inviting them to come to Mass and join our celebration on October 3rd.

Our prayer challenge will conclude with the praying of the Novena to Our Lady of Hope, which you will also find in your packets. May Almighty God continue to pour out His blessings upon us through the intercession of Our Lady of Hope.

If you have not yet received your Prayer Challenge Packet, please stop by the parish office to pick one up.
