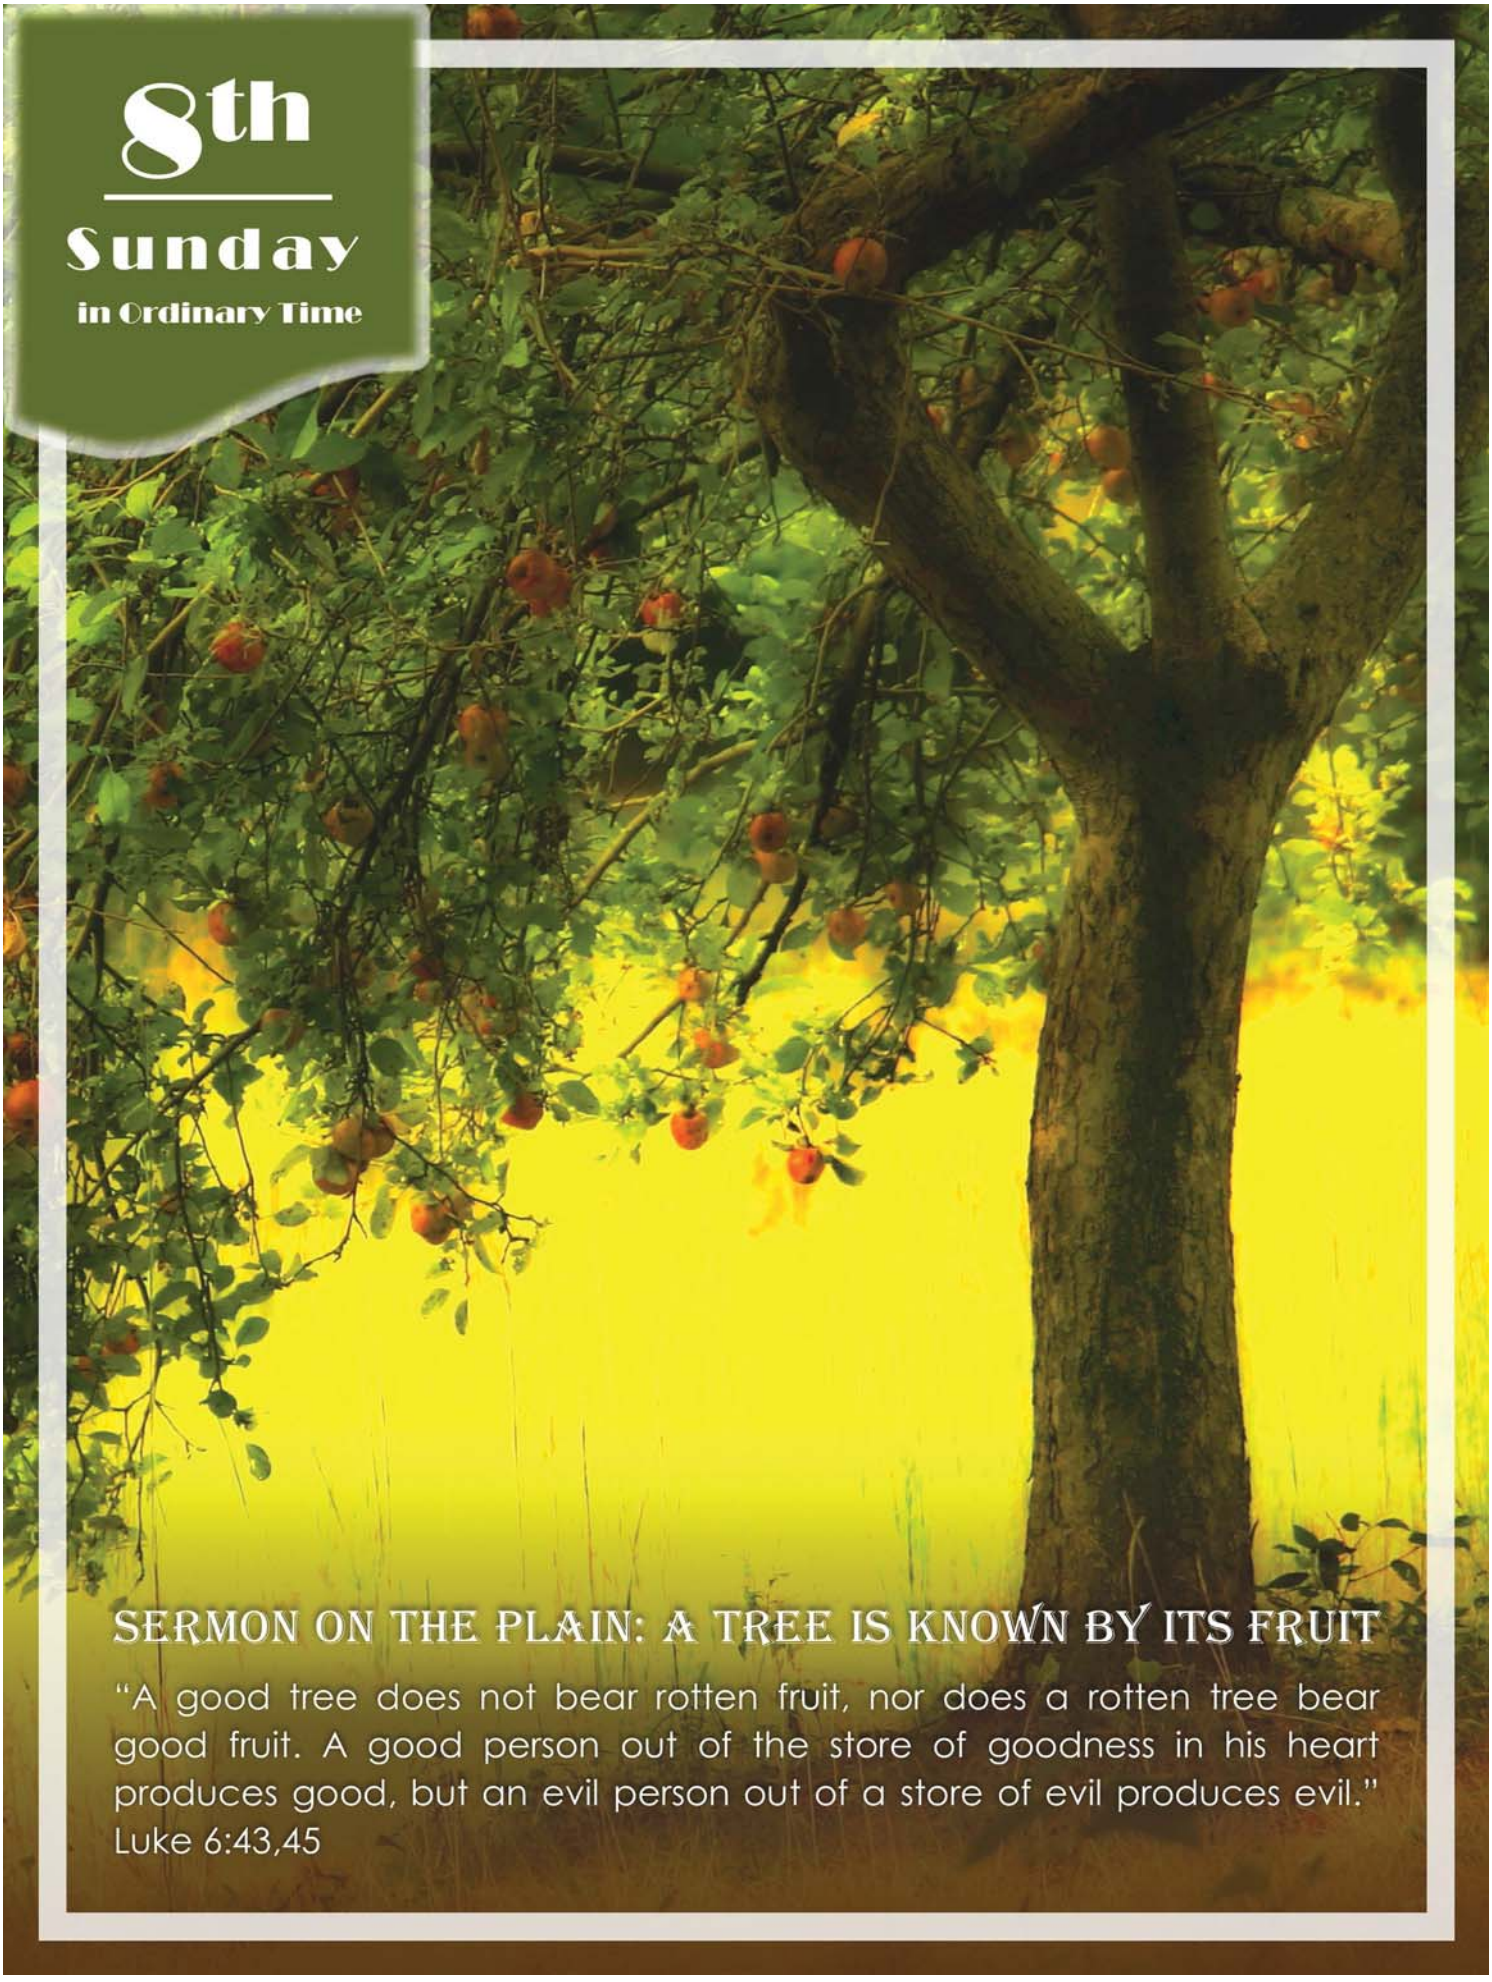
8th Sunday in Ordinary Time



SERMON ON THE PLAIN: A TREE IS KNOWN BY ITS FRUIT

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil." Luke 6:43,45

Scott Hahn Reflects on The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's readings we hear Jesus speaking in Galilee as well as a Jewish sage named Sirach writing in Jerusalem more than a century earlier. The two of them touch upon a single truth: The words that come out of us make known the hidden thoughts within us. Speech reveals the secrets of the heart.

Sirach teaches that speaking is "the test of men" and their character (Sir 27:7). One who is upright will utter words that are truthful and encouraging to others. But one whose heart is cluttered with "refuse" will be exposed, since the "fruit" of his mouth speaks volumes about the "tree" that produces it (Sir 27:6). Sirach also compares the testing of our words to clay fired in a kiln—if properly prepared, a useful vessel emerges; but if the clay is not fully dried, it will break apart in the extreme heat (Sirach 27:5).

In a similar way, Jesus insists that a person speaks "out of the abundance of the heart" (Luke 6:45). He too compares our speech, whether good or bad, to what grows on a tree: "For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit" (Luke 6:43).

Both readings urge us to make wholesome speech a habit. After all, much about who we are is brought to light through what we say. But there's an additional step: The Lord is asking us to look inward, to examine our hearts and fill them with the "good treasure" that God desires.

Why do purity of heart and speech matter so much? Because, as Jesus declares elsewhere: "by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned" (Matt 12:37). They matter because they help to decide our final judgment, and this is where the Second Reading comes in. Paul reminds us that God will destroy death forever, and if we are to share in this victory and live forever with the Lord, then we must take all steps necessary to give our hearts and lips to what is good.

Weekly Confession Quotation

"The minister to whom confession is made is the delegate of Christ, Who is the Judge of the living and the dead."
-St. Thomas Aquinas

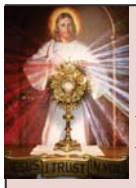
Please see front cover for times of healing.

Welcome

We would like to welcome everyone to Our Lady of Hope and St. Ann's Church. To those of you who are joining us after an absence or for the first time, we are truly glad to see you. We hope that you will consider being a permanent part of our parish family. We hope you enjoy your visit and look forward to seeing you again. From all of us, WELCOME HOME!!!

Our Adorers' testimonies

"My personal experience with the Lord in Adoration has been satisfying. It's given me a chance to worship God in silence. Not only do I praise and thank God during my Adoration hour, it gives me a chance to make my requests known to Him as well as an opportunity to repent for my sins. Even when I ramble on, I feel confident that He is listening to me. Unlike Sunday Mass, (except for an occasional bang of the pews), there are no distractions. My focus is on Jesus. Sometimes I have come racing into the Church with lots of things on my mind, but I have always left calmer. I have never regretted any of the hours I have spent in Adoration. It has been and continues to be a blessing!



Weekly Adoration Quotation

"Christ held Himself in His hands when He gave His Body to His disciples saying: 'This is My Body.' No one partakes of this Flesh before he has adored it." -St. Augustine

St. Mary's Faith Formation will be hosting a Pancake Dinner. Please come support the children and enjoy a taste of goodies before your Lenten fasts.

Lenten Almsgiving

This year, instead of having the annual Holy Thursday Rice Bowl collection, we ask, that if you are able, to please make a donation towards helping the poor in our own communities. You can simply put your donation in an envelope labeled "Lenten Almsgiving" and place in the collection basket anytime during the Lenten season. Our Lady of Hope also has specially designated "poor boxes" located at the entrances of the church.

Thank you in advance for your generosity towards helping the most vulnerable in our communities!

Hope After-School

The Hope After-School Program will be starting back up again this March to help the children of Whitehall in the 2nd & 3rd grade. We are looking for one part time teacher who is able to work 1 to 2 days a week (this is a paid position). We are also in need of volunteers. The After-School Program goes from 3:30-5:30 p.m. Monday-Friday. If interested please call the church office at 518-499-1656.

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE PASSAGE

I love you, O Lord, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer. (Psalm 18:2-3)

FIRST FRIDAY MASS

Please join us on Friday, March 4, for First Friday Mass & Devotions at Our Lady of Hope.

The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the first Catholic devotion specifically requested and established by Our Lord Jesus Christ, Himself, in His revelations over a period of two years to St. Margaret Mary Alocoque, a Visantine nun in France, beginning in 1693.

Faithful Catholics consecrate to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in a spirit of reparation, the First Friday of each month for nine consecutive months. To gain this grace, we must:

- Receive holy Communion on nine consecutive first Fridays.
- Have the intention of honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of reaching final perseverance.
- Offer each holy Communion as an act of atonement for offenses against the Blessed Sacrament.

THE 12 PROMISES OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS TO ST. MARGARET MARY

Jesus himself made the following promises to St. Margaret Mary in favor of those who practice and promote this devotion.

1. I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their families and will unite families that are divided.
3. I will comfort them in all their afflictions.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all in death.
5. I will bestow the blessings of Heaven on all their enterprises.
6. Sinners shall find in my Heart the source and the infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection.
9. I will bless every place in which an Image of my Heart shall be exposed and honored and will imprint My love on the hearts of all those who would wear this image on their person. I will also destroy in them all disordered movements.
10. 1 will give the priests who are animated by a tender devotion to my Divine Heart the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
1 1 . Those who promote this devotion shall have their names written in my Heart, never to be effaced.
12. 1 promise you in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who communicate on the First Friday in nine consecutive months the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in my disgrace nor with out receiving their Sacraments. My divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

To encourage the practice of the Devotion, the Church grants a Plenary indulgence to those who attend Mass and receive Communion in honor of His Sacred Heart on the First Friday of each month. (Raccolta, S.C. Ind., Sept. 7, 1897; S.P. Ap., June 1, 1934 and May 15, 1949)
