A LETTER FROM OLA'S SEMINARIAN

Dear Family, Friends, and Benefactors,

I am just getting ready to start my junior year of college seminary. First we will spend a weeklong retreat with Jesus to get the year started off right. Then classes begin. My classes are Spanish 3, two philosophy courses, geology, and Pastoral Ministry. My apostolate this semester is working with Catholic Men's Leadership. It is an outreach that tries to keep college men involved in their faith, because so many fall away from their faith when they leave home. We're going on the offensive and striving to win souls for Christ.

My semester abroad in Rome was changed from this fall to the spring semester, so I plan to be there after Christmas break.

I have finished two years of college seminary, and have two to go. After that I have four years of major seminary. God willing, I will be ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Anchorage in 2024. Sometimes seminary is tough, but the thing that keeps me going is the goal of coming back and giving Jesus to people through the Sacraments.

Seminary is a constant battle to die to yourself that Christ may live in you. My brother seminarians and I are in desperate need of your awesome and powerful prayers. No one gets holy without being prayed for and the world needs holy priests. Keep up the good work and God bless.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support. Know that you inspire me to keep moving forward.

*For the greater glory of God,
Seminarian Ed Burke*

P.S. This is going to be my third year as the "baby seminarian" for my Archdiocese. Please storm Heaven with your prayers that more young men will answer the call.

STEWARDSHIP & THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

A Steward's Way

The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that "all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8:28).

After Jesus, we look to Mary as an ideal steward. As the Mother of Christ, she lived her ministry in a spirit of fidelity and service; she responded generously to the call. We must ask ourselves: Do we also wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ and Christian stewards of our world and our Church?

Central to our human and Christian vocations, as well as to the unique vocation each one of us receives from God, is that we be good stewards of the gifts we possess. God gives us this divine-human workshop, this world and Church of ours.

The Spirit shows us the way.

Stewardship is a part of that journey.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOR...

Father O'Malley answers the phone.

"Hello, is this Father O'Malley?"

"It is."

"This is the IRS. Can you help us?"

"I can."

"Do you know a Ted Houlihan?"

"I do."

"Is he a member of your congregation?"

"He is."

"Did he donate $10,000 to the church?"

"He will."

WEEKEND & SPECIAL EVENT COORDINATOR POSITION

OLA is looking for a person who can help the priests coordinate and facilitate weekend activities.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Maintenance/General Repair Group

Fr. Tom is looking for a few handy people to call upon from time-to-time when minor repairs or basic maintenance of the church is needed.

This stewardship may include changing a light bulb, the use of a screw driver, taking some bugs out of the light fixtures, or cutting down a tree.

If you are available to call, please contact Fr. Tom at 283-4555 or by email at: ladyoftheangels@gmail.com

Children's Liturgy Catechists

Looking for Children's Liturgy volunteers! Our young parishioners process downstairs with their catechist to listen to the Sunday readings from the Children's Lectionary.

The readings are shared with the children at a level that is understandable to them through songs, stories, crafts, etc. Then they return upstairs during the Offertory to share in the Liturgy of the Eucharist with their families.

With the current volunteer rotation, this stewardship is once a month. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Fr. Tom at 283-4555 or by email at: ladyoftheangels@gmail.com
