LENTEN REGULATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

During Lent, special activities help us to open our lives to God's renewing power. Jesus speaks of praying, fasting, and almsgiving (Mt 6:1-6, 16:18).

PRAYER

The Stations of the Cross will take place every Friday of Lent after the 5:30 PM Mass. Please bring your family to these beautiful meditations on the Lord's passion and death.

FASTING

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, in particular, are the most important penitential days of the liturgical year. They are days of both fast and abstinence.

All Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence. The rule of abstinence binds all Catholics 14 years old and older. Abstinence refers to not eating meat. Under the present law this does not include egg or milk products, soups, or gravies. The common estimation of the community is used to determine what falls under the category of meat.

The rule of fasting states that only one full meal a day can be taken. Two small meals, "sufficient to maintain strength," are allowed, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals breaks the fast but drinking liquids does not. The rule of fasting obliges all Catholics from ages 18-59. The substantial observance of the laws of fast and abstinence is a serious obligation. Those whose health would be impaired are excused from fasting and abstaining.

ALMSGIVING—CRS RICE BOWL

During Lent, many people like to sacrifice in order to assist the poor and hungry, by contributing to Catholic Relief Services. One way is through the CRS RICE BOWL activity which begins March 6th and continues through April 21st. We eat less at one meal and put the money saved in a little box for those who have so much less than we; we bring the donation to the church at the end of Lent. Catholic Relief Services distributes 75% of the funds to the needy around the world; the Diocese of San Angelo distributes 25% locally. An envelope is provided in your packet for this purpose; please return it by Easter.

Wednesday, March 6th

Ashes will be distributed only after the homily during the daily Masses.

RCIA News by Bill Berry

This week in RCIA, we will learn about Lent and Ash Wednesday. Where did they come from? What does the Church teach about Lent and Ash Wednesday? Why are they important to Catholics? As Catholics, we should be intentional concerning Lent in that we should enter into Lenten practices that help draw us closer to God. The celebration of the resurrection at Easter is not something that should slip up on us almost by surprise. Rather, we should prepare to celebrate the resurrection. Lent helps us prepare to encounter Jesus in His crucifixion, death and resurrection. RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. It's the process by which adults come into full communion with the Catholic Church. It's free, childcare is provided, we have a lot of fun and we always have something good to eat! If you have questions, feel free to email me at billberry100@aol.com.

This week begins our new Lenten Study by Catholic Scripture Study on "Lent: The Road to Redemption, Cycle C", a 6-week study on the Gospels of Luke, narrated on DVD by Fr. Mitch Pacwa. For a change from the usual 40 days of Lent every year, come join us for a more spiritually meaningful time in the desert with Jesus. Delve deeper this year and allow your Sunday Gospel readings to become more alive and meaningful this Lent. We begin Wednesday, March 6 at 9:30 a.m. and Thursday, March 7 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 2. Study Guides are available in the Church Office for $14.00. Don't be left out; get your Study Guide early and be prepared for Lesson 1 at the first class. VIII DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

3 de marzo 2019

El evangelio de hoy nos presenta unos pasajes del discurso que Jesús pronunció en la planicie después de una noche pasada en oración y de haber llamado a los doce para que fueran sus apóstoles.

Gran parte de las frases reunidas en este discurso fueron pronunciadas en otras ocasiones, pero Lucas, imitando a Mateo, las reúne aquí en este Sermón.

La parábola del ciego que guía a otro ciego. Jesús cuenta una parábola a los discípulos: "¿Puede un ciego guiar a otro ciego? ¿No caerán los dos en el hoyo?" Parábola de una sola línea, pero que tiene mucha semejanza con las advertencias que, en el evangelio de Mateo, van dirigidas a los fariseos: "¡Ay de vosotros los ciegos!", esta parábola va dirigida a los animadores de las comunidades que se consideraban dueños de la verdad, superiores a los otros. Por esto, son guías ciegos.

"Ningún discípulo es mayor que el maestro; será como el maestro cuando esté perfectamente instruido". Jesús es Maestro. No es profesor. El profesor da la clase, enseña diversas asignaturas, pero no convive. El maestro convive. Su materia es el mismo, su testimonio de vida, su manera de vivir aquello que enseña.

La convivencia con el maestro tiene tres aspectos:

(1) El maestro es el modelo o el ejemplo que hay que imitar (Jn 13,13-15).

(2) El discípulo no sólo contempla e imita, sino que además se compromete con el destino del maestro, con sus tentaciones (Lc 22,28), persecución (Mt 10,24-25), y muerte (Jn 11,16).

(3) No sólo imita el modelo, no sólo asume el compromiso, sino que llega a identificarse: "Vivo, pero no soy yo, es Cristo quien vive en mí" (Gál 2,20). Este tercer aspecto es la dimensión mística del seguimiento de Jesús, fruto de la acción del Espíritu.

"¿Cómo es que miras la paja que hay en el ojo de tu hermano y no reparas en la viga que hay en tu propio ojo? ¿Cómo puedes decir a tu hermano: 'Hermano, deja que saque la paja que hay en tu ojo', ¿si no ves la viga que hay en el tuyo? Hipócrita, saca primero la viga de tu ojo y entonces podrás ver para sacar la paja que hay en el ojo de tu hermano."

Hermana Gertrudis Muñoz Mendieta I.C.A.S.

HELPING HANDS OF MIDLAND
1301 BRINSON LANE
(432) 520-8900

www.helpinghandsmidland.com

We were once asked if the people we help ever paid us back. While the person who asked the question knew that we never asked for remuneration, he wondered if people ever tried to "return the favor."

While at the time the question caught us off guard, and while we knew that yes, the people we help do oftentimes try to return the help, the question led us to pay more careful attention to the actual everyday workings of Helping Hands.

We wrote several years ago about the man to whom we had given boxes of food. The man shared his food with another man in need. Over the years he developed a friendship with the man, and when he finally came into some money, he not only took care of his friend financially, but he donated several checks to Helping Hands in return for the help he had received from us so long ago. The monetary donations far outweighed anything we had done for him financially.

We oftentimes receive donations in the mail from people with simple notes such as "You helped me when I was down and out." "You saved me, and now I would like to do what I can to help someone else." The checks or money enclosed may range from a few dollars to several hundred. Every penny received is a tremendous blessing to us because we know that it came to us from someone from whom that money was precious.

Every day that our store is open we receive unsolicited donations. While we may charge $2 for an item, we are oftentimes given $5 or even more. The comments range from: "you helped me when I was in need, and I want to do what I can to help someone else," to "you do such good work; let me help you do more," to "just give it to help someone out." Those donations amount to many, many dollars each day that the store is open.

Still other people use our thrift store as a means of helping the poor. They know that we are an all-volunteer organization and that all of the money we take in goes to alleviate the needs of the poor. One wonderful man each year will come to our store, buy an item for which we would normally charge less than $1. He hands us a check for $1,000 and tells us to keep the change. With a wink and a smile he tells us that he is sure we can find a good way to use it.

We are both blessed and humbled because in all of those cases the money was never solicited. Yes, the people we help, and our customers all help us to pay it forward, as much as they are capable of doing. And for those who cannot, there are a multitude of people in our wonderful city who watch over the poor every day. Those people are you, who help us care for them through your generous donations.

What a special ministry we have at Helping Hands! We cannot help but know that God's gentle, loving arms are embracing us as we seek to care for His most favored ones. And those arms embrace us through your support of Helping Hands. Thank you so very, very much!

Because we feel it is important that you know how and where your donations to Helping Hands are spent, here is what was done in the past week:

Electric	6 families	$ 1,714.31
Water	3 families	$ 2,833.71
Rent	27 families	$19,561.36
Transportation	1 family	$ 1,300.00
TOTAL		$25,409.38
