Fr. Bala Sunday Reflection

The Call to Service in Suffering and Healing

On this fifth Sunday in ordinary time, we gather to reflect upon the Word of God, which speaks to us through the struggles and hopes, the healing and the service, as presented in the readings from Job, the Psalms, the First Letter to the Corinthians, and the Gospel of Mark.

In the first reading, from the Book of Job (Job 7:1-4, 6-7), we are confronted with Job's lament, a vivid portrayal of human suffering and the fleeting nature of life. Job's despair is palpable as he speaks of his life as a "drudgery," filled with restless nights and endless suffering. His is a voice that might resonate with many today who feel burdened by their trials and tribulations, questioning the purpose of their suffering.

Yet, in the midst of this lament, the Psalm (Psalm 147:1-6) offers us a message of hope and healing. It reminds us that God is great and almighty, yet He is also compassionate, healing the brokenhearted and binding up their wounds. It is a powerful reminder that, in our own moments of despair, God is close, intimately aware of our suffering, and capable of healing our deepest wounds.

The second reading, from the First Letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23), Paul speaks of his compulsion to preach the Gospel, not as a boast but as a duty laid upon him. Paul's willingness to become "all things to all people" so that he might save some, illustrates the selfless nature of true discipleship. It challenges us to reflect on our own commitment to the Gospel, urging us to consider how we, too, are called to serve others and spread the Good News, even when it demands sacrifice and flexibility from us.

Finally, the Gospel of Mark (Mark 1:29-39) presents us with the healing ministry of Jesus. Here, Jesus heals Simon's mother-in-law and many who were sick or possessed by demons in Capernaum. But notably, after a long night of service, Jesus retreats to a deserted place to pray. This action of Jesus is a profound lesson for all of us: the balance between service to others and the necessity of prayer and communion with the Father.

As we meditate on these readings, let us ask ourselves: How are we called to bring healing and hope to those who suffer in our communities? Are we willing to make sacrifices for the sake of the Gospel? How do we balance our service to others with our personal spiritual nourishment?

!!!El examen de conciencia!!!

4 de enero 2024

Hermana Gertrudis Muñoz Mendieta I.C.A.S.

El examen de conciencia pretende desarrollar en nosotros un corazón sensible a las invitaciones de Dios y saber detectar las fallas que no permiten hacer vida el amor. Nos permite leer nuestra vida desde la persona de Jesús de Nazaret y ponernos en contacto con Dios desde y con lo más real de nosotros mismos. Dios está continuamente llevándonos hacia El en un modo y por un camino particular y original a cada uno de nosotros, del que no siempre estamos conscientes.

El examen es una forma de oración diaria, un ejercicio de discernimiento que nos ayuda a tomar conciencia de las invitaciones que Dios origina en nosotros a través de los diálogos, las actividades, los paisajes, los abrazos y los problemas que tenemos día con día.

El examen de conciencia nos ayuda a desarrollar una sensibilidad cotidiana que me permita experimentar el amor de Dios y los deseos que nos conducen a una vida más plena.

El examen de conciencia consiste en recuperar cómo me fue en el día. No es un momento para juzgar mis actos, sino para tomar conciencia de mis actos. El examen puede hacerse mentalmente, pero mucho ayuda hacerlo escrito. Se recomienda hacerse diario o por lo menos una vez a la semana al final de la noche. Los pasos para realizar el examen de conciencia, recomendados por San Ignacio de Loyola, son los siguientes:

- A. Pedir luz y gracia para descubrir a Dios en lo vivido.
- B. Agradecer los dones del día
- C. Reconocer fallas (lo que sentí, lo que hice, lo que pensé)
- D. Si hubo fallas graves, hacer una oración de perdón
- E. Hacer un propósito para cumplir con su gracia

Electricity	9 families	$ 5,269.01
Gas	4 families	$ 566.38
Water	5 families	$ 2,898.18
Rent	16 families	$33,942.03
Medical	1 family	$ 929.70
Total		$43,605.30

A few of the cases that we assisted last week:

Valerie is a 45-year-old single woman who works part time for a retailer. She only works part-time because she has an autistic son who suffers severe anxiety and cannot be left alone. She works evenings, when her 18-year-old son is at home to care for the child. She was getting increasingly behind on her mortgage but then when she came down with Covid and missed two weeks of work she reached a point where she was going under. She recovered from Covid, returned to work and managed to pay one month of her mortgage, but she was still served with foreclosure papers. We were able to get her caught back up by paying her January mortgage, and by also paying her February mortgage we will give her the opportunity to pay ahead on those monthly payments.

Gloria is a 57-year-old single woman who has worked hard all of her life, either doing retail, custodial, or fast food work. A few years ago her sister purchased a daycare, and Gloria went to work for her assisting in the care of the children. Early in January, her sister passed away unexpectedly and the business was closed, leaving her unemployed. She was concerned that, at her age it might be hard to find a job although she said she was still strong and could do just about anything. We offered her a few suggestions as to local retailers who employed older people and she planned to visit those places as soon as her visit with us was finished. We paid her January past due rent plus her February rent (since it was only days away from being due). We have no doubt that she will find a job very, very soon.

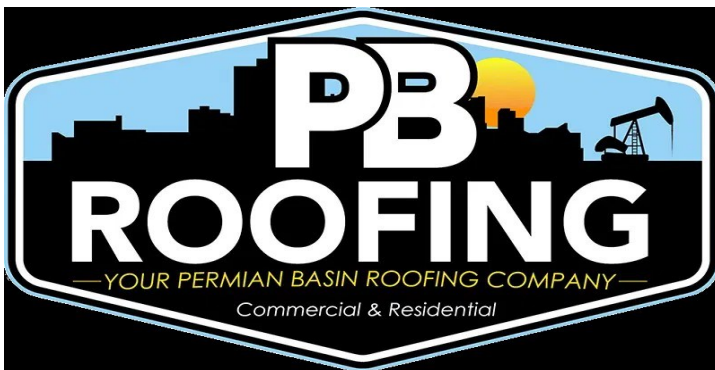

Wyatt is a young man (23 years of age) with a 2-year-old son. The woman he was living with became violent and attacked him. In fear he took his child to his parents house to get him out of the situation. The police were notified, she was jailed temporarily and then as a result of court proceedings she has to be out of the apartment within one week. With the changes in his living situation, Wyatt is moving into a 1 bedroom apartment that he and his son can afford on his now sole income. We paid his February rent so that he can afford the additional expenses relative to changing apartments.

Joanie broke her leg back in October and underwent surgery. She was (and still is) unable to put any pressure on it. She got behind on her rent as a result of time missed from work. She owed $3,500 for the 3 months she had been out,. She is now working out of her house and has been able to catch up with all by $1,600 of the past due rent. We were more than happy to get her caught up and hopefully, now that she is even, she will be able to keep her rent current.

We are so thankful to be able to help as many people as we do, and it is all because of your generous donations that make it possible for us to do so. May all of you be blessed for allowing us to be your arms in reaching out to those in need in Midland. Thank you very much!
