SUNDAY REFLECTION BY FR. BALA

Title: "A Dwelling Place for God in Our Hearts"

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we draw near to the glorious celebration of Pentecost, the Church invites us today to reflect more deeply on the gift of peace, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the promise of God's dwelling among us. Today's readings are not only beautiful in imagery and promise, but they offer us profound truths that can transform our lives if we open our hearts.

1. The Church Guided by the Holy Spirit – Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

In the first reading, we are taken to the Council of Jerusalem, the first great council of the Church. There was disagreement and confusion. Some insisted that new believers had to be circumcised according to the Mosaic Law. But the Apostles and elders, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, discerned the truth and chose not to impose unnecessary burdens.

They wrote:

"It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities."

What does this mean for us?

The Church is not governed by human preference or ideology, but by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth (John 16:13).

As the Catechism reminds us:

"It is in the Church, in communion with all the baptized, that the Christian fulfills his vocation. From the Church he receives the Word of God... and the grace of the sacraments that sustains him on the 'way'" (CCC 2030).

When there is confusion in doctrine or morality, it is the Holy Spirit who preserves the Church in truth, and we are called to listen and trust. As St. Ignatius of Antioch once said, "Where the bishop is, there is the Church, and where the Church is, there is Jesus Christ."

Let us examine ourselves: Do I submit my opinions to the teachings of the Church, or do I resist them when they are inconvenient?

2. A Glorious Vision of Our Eternal Home – Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

St. John gives us a breathtaking vision of the Heavenly Jerusalem, coming down from heaven. And what is most striking?

"I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb."

There is no sun or moon—for God Himself is the Light, and the Lamb is the lamp.

This is our destiny! Heaven is not a place of clouds and harps but a living communion with God. St. Catherine of Siena said, "All the way to Heaven is Heaven, because Jesus said, 'I am the Way.'"

Every time we come to Mass, every time we kneel before the Eucharist, we are entering into a foretaste of this Heavenly Jerusalem. This is why the liturgy must not be reduced to entertainment or routine. It is our true worship before the throne of the Lamb!

Let us reflect: Do I long for Heaven? Do I live in such a way that I am building a spiritual temple in my soul where God can dwell?

3. The Indwelling of the Trinity and the Gift of Peace – John 14:23-29

Jesus says:

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

This is one of the most profound promises in all of Scripture. The Catechism teaches us:

"The whole Christian life bears the mark of the love of the Son for the Father. This is why Christ's disciples are invited to live in close communion with Him" (CCC 1693).

God wants to dwell in your heart. Not just near you. Not just around you. Inside you.

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, a Carmelite mystic, said: "Let yourself be loved." She wrote that we must become a "praise of glory" for God by letting Him dwell within us. This is not a poetic idea—it is real! Every time you receive the Eucharist in a state of grace, the Trinity lives in you.

And what is the fruit of this indwelling? Peace.

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you."

This is not worldly peace, which depends on external calm. This is the peace of Christ—the unshakable serenity that flows from knowing you are loved eternally by God. Even in the midst of war, sickness, betrayal, or death—this peace remains.

Conclusion: Be a Dwelling Place for God

My dear friends, in this Easter season, God is inviting you to become His dwelling place.

- Like the early Church, let us listen to the Holy Spirit who speaks through the Magisterium.
- Like the Heavenly Jerusalem, let us shine with the light of the Lamb, radiating holiness in a dark world.

Like Mary, the first tabernacle, let us say 'yes' to God's presence within us, and live in peace.

Let me leave you with the words of St. Teresa of Avila:

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes with which He looks compassion on this world."

So let us love Him, keep His word, and build our lives around His presence.

May this week be one of the transformations. Go to Confession. Spend time in Adoration. Reconcile with someone. Forgive. Pray the Rosary daily. Return to the Word. Let God dwell in you. Amen.

YOUNG ADULTS CONFIRMATION MAY 9, 2025

Friends,

This weekend, the Vocation Office hosted its annual Discernment Retreat at St. Mary's Church in Odessa. We had thirteen men from around the diocese in attendance, along with most of our diocesan seminarians.

A public word of "thanks" to Fr. Bernardito Getigan and his parishioners. The staff and volunteers were more than accommodating. The recent renovations to the Holy Family Room, chapel, and school dining room are tremendous success. The parish has a lot to celebrate.

Thanks to our speakers: Bishop Sis, Fr. Freddy Perez, Fr. Ignatius Edet, and Fr. Kevin Lenius. The men were moved by your priestly witness and example. Thank you for loving our men.

Please keep the vocation office and all discerners in your prayers.

Best

Rev. Ryan Rojo S.T.L.

MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

2025 Medical Mission to Honduras June 29 - July 6, 2025

Bishop Michael Sis and the Diocesan Mission Council are pleased to announce an opportunity to serve on a week-long medical mission trip to Honduras. We will be serving our brothers and sisters of the Diocese of La Ceiba, Honduras.

We are seeking compassionate medical professionals, (physicians, nurses, PAs and NPs), to join us in providing essential healthcare services to underserved communities. This mission aims to offer medical assistance, health education, and support to those in need.

Sunday, June 29, 2025, we will fly from west Texas to beautiful Roatan, Honduras. There, we will work with the local parish in providing the much-needed medical services as a result of a tragic fire that destroyed the only hospital on the island.

From there we will travel to La Ceiba, Honduras, to meet and work with the local medical community in preparation for a trip to Esparta, Honduras, a rural community about 55 miles from La Ceiba. Esparta is a community of approximately 19,000 people with no medical services.

We will spend two days serving the people of Esparta and their surrounding community. We will return home on July 6, 2025.

If you feel called to make a difference and have the skills to help, please consider giving back your expertise and talents as volunteers to our first annual mission to Honduras.

For more information, and to sign up, please contact us at SanRafaelExpedition@outlook.com or call Janelle O'Connell at 325-668-3397. Let's come together to bring hope and healing to our brothers and sisters in Honduras!

Grupo de Matrimonios
Iglesia San Esteban
4601 Seely Ave
Midland, TX 79707

te invita cordialmente a todos los matrimonios de nuestra comunidad a una noche de reflexión y fortalecimiento espiritual.

Fecha: Viernes, 30 de mayo de 2025
Hora: 7:00 PM
Lugar: Iglesia San Esteban Salon II

Nos honra contar con la participación de la Psicóloga Tanatóloga Melinda Hernández, quien compartirá con nosotros el tema:

"Nuestro Matrimonio, Cimiento de la Familia"

Un espacio para renovar nuestro compromiso como esposos y redescubrir el valor de la familia como núcleo de la fe y la sociedad.

¡Acompáñanos! Será una noche de crecimiento, diálogo y comunidad en el amor de Cristo.
