DECEMBER 10, 2017
SECOND SUNDAY
OF ADVENT

WELCOME

"People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him." John the Baptist commanded quite a crowd. What was the attraction? Was it his unusual appearance-clothed in camel's hair? Perhaps it was his bizarre eating habits-feeding on locusts and wild honey. Or maybe people were captivated by the Baptist's remarkable humility in the face of such huge popularity - "I am not worthy." Unlike our modern fascination with standing in the presence of superstars, the crowds who flocked to John weren't looking for a thrill. They weren't lining up for autographs. They were lining up for baptism. And they were acknowledging their sins at the same time. John was proclaiming "a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins." And people came because they were longing to experience the freedom of that forgiveness. John called them to conversion. To convert means to turn, in this case to turn away from sin. And the crowds were anxious to do so in order to "prepare the way of the Lord." For these first-century Jews, the imminent approach of the Messiah came with a call for conversion and they took this call very seriously. Now, for us, as twenty-first century Christians, the Church, like John the Baptist, calls us to prepare and repent during this season of Advent. Will we take the call seriously? Will we examine the areas of our lives that need to change? Will we pray for God's help to overcome our habitual sin and to make choices based on generosity instead of selfishness? Now is the time to heed the message. Now is the time to "prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Help religious communities. "Your generous contribution helps us to care for our retired sisters and enables our younger sisters to continue in active ministry," writes a religious sister. Your gift to today's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and more for thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders!

Please give as generously as you can to this collection on December 9th and 10th.

From Fr. Golas,

We begin a new church year with the season of Advent. I would like to inform you of some minor changes that will occur at Mass. There are no longer prayers on the front cover of the missalette. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal published in 2011, the Entrance Chant or hymn is to open the celebration of the Eucharist. It serves to "foster the unity of the assembly, it introduces the liturgical time of year or feast, and supports the movement of the procession". Our beginning with a private prayer of devotion seems to distract from this goal of the Roman missal. The Little Sisters of the Poor of St. Joseph Residence have provided a wonderful prayer to St. Jeanne Jugan that you can take with you and pray for our parish daily.

The other change concerns the prayer said after the closing prayer of the general intercessions. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal refers to these prayers as 'Universal prayers' in that they are prayers for the salvation of all. The priest celebrant presides over these prayers, meaning he begins and ends them. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states "because of the centrality of these prayers of the priest celebrant no other prayers, singing, or music should take place during them". I would certainly encourage private prayers at Mass, silent devotion and meditation, but I am obligated to follow the structure of the Mass as the Church instructs and as I have been trained. I hope and pray that this season of Advent is a time of prayer, hope and joy for all.

THE CATHOLIC MISSION AID SOCIETY

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH
MISSIONARY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION
OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

Dear Father Golas,

Thank you very much for the generous World Mission Sunday contribution of $1,786 from the people of St. Bernard Church.

On World Mission Sunday, your parish community joined with Catholics throughout the world in support of the work and witness of the Mission Church, through which the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Please continue your connection with the Mission Church year round through MISSIO. Learn more about connecting your parish directly with those laboring in the Missions at missio.org.

Again, I am most grateful to you for encouraging the missionary spirit of prayer and sacrifice among your parishioners. Know that you and they remain in my prayers - and in the prayers of those they help in the Missions.

Sincerely,

Reverend Robert B. Vargo
Archdiocesan Director

SBS STUDENTS AT KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MUSEUM

On Tuesday, November 28th, the fourth grade students from St. Bernard School travelled to the Knights of Columbus Museum at One State Street in New Haven, CT for their annual tree decorating event. The class was selected to decorate one of the trees that will be on display during this Advent and Christmas season. This year's theme was Christmas Around the World. The students created all the ornaments and decorations for their tree. They created handprint poinsettias to represent Mexico, nutcrackers for Germany, nesting doll garland for Russia, Christmas crackers from the United Kingdom, and St. Lucia's wreath from Sweden served as their tree skirt. The students also represented a few of their favorite Christmas things on the colorful Christmas balls. The students also participated in cocoa and carols, a Christmas ornament craft, and a tour of the creches from around the world. The students and the staff - Mrs. Mongillo, Mr. Furey, and Mrs. Kundrat all enjoyed their visit. Admission and parking for the Knights of Columbus Museum is FREE so if you are looking for a fun way to celebrate the holiday season and see some of SBS student's hard work on display then head to the Knights of Columbus Museum today!

TAKE "NOTE" OF THIS!

Children at SBS are lucky to have Ms. Beth Surapine as their music teacher and choir director. Ms. Surapine, a graduate of Hartt School of Music, has been with the school for over 20 years, teaching music theory and doing a LOT of singing with her students! Songs learned include seasonal, religious, and popular tunes!

In addition to weekly lessons, the school puts on two shows a year: one at Christmas and one in the spring. Ms. Surapine also directs the Children's Choir, which sings at school Masses, and at the monthly family Mass at St. Bernard's Church. They sound marvelous, and all are invited to hear them at the Christmas concert/show on December 19th.

EGGS AND ELVES RULE AT ST. BERNARD SCHOOL

Santa and his helpers served up eggs, pancakes, and a special visit with the jolly old elf himself at the St. Bernard School Breakfast with Santa. Head elves, Melissa Herman and Katie Fitzgerald, said the annual event is a "fun-raiser" for the parish and school community, with any proceeds going to support the school. Students from the junior high assisted with the serving and clean-up. Many youngsters enjoyed talking with Santa, while their excited parents took advantage of the photo opportunity.

WHY ADVENT?

On Wednesday, December 13th at 3:30 pm Msgr. David Liptak, former editor of The Catholic Transcript, will help us to have a better idea of the historical and theological development of the season of Advent. Come and join us at St Joseph's Residence for this presentation. It will help us to have a better focus during these very busy days of preparing for Christmas.

At St. Bernard Church, the sanctuary candle in the church burns in memory of Dr. Frank Tortora. Contact the SB church office for information about having the sanctuary candles burn for your intention.
