ST. BERNARD CHURCH

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WELCOME

For most of us, the dynamic between prayer and action is imperfect. Breakfast needs to be made and the kids dressed. Work demands our energy and additional responsibilities fill our evenings and weekends. Then there's the football game or a new TV series to stream. After all, don't we need to relax? We're all busy. But just imagine Jesus' situation in today's Gospel. He heals Peter's mother-in-law, drives out demons, and cures diseases late into the night. With very little sleep, he arises before dawn to capture some peace and quiet, only to find "those who were with him pursued him." How often do we feel pursued by the harried commitments, even when we try to seek rest? Perhaps we can learn something from the response of Jesus.

Jesus models two key things: the essential nature of prayer and the essential call of vocation. "He went off to a deserted place, where he prayed." Despite inevitable exhaustion, Jesus prioritizes time with the Father. We might not have easy access to deserts and mountaintops, but today's Gospel challenges us to take intentional time set apart for God. We can designate a "prayer chair" in a corner of our home or leave a little earlier to pick our children up from school so we can snatch time in a nearby chapel. We can pray the rosary on our commute or take the dog for a long walk in silence.

However, when the Apostles arrive, Jesus doesn't linger long in the deserted place or make an excuse for why he can't return with his friends. Jesus is true to his calling. He continues on in his state of life, serving the people nearest to him. Like Jesus, we are invited to set intentional time for communion with God so that we can be refreshed and empowered for our communion with others.

REAL OR FAKE?

Could YOU tell if a website you were relying on for accurate information was reliable or not? You could if you had the skills that the 6th graders at SBS are learning during Library. School Librarian, Mrs. Kristen Frost, is promoting critical thinking skills and the ability to distinguish between "real" and "fake" information. Students were assigned a topic to research, ranging from the science of weather to Burmese Mountain dogs. They then had to determine if a given website was "real or "fake". After each project was presented, they discussed various issues such as "is the author's name and e-mail address on the page?" and "does the page lead you to some other good information (links)?" to help them make their decision. These skills will definitely come in handy in their future endeavors, and they had fun, too!

PURSE BINGO FUNDRAISER

Over 200 women gathered at St. Bernard School hall on January 20th to try and win a designer handbag, as well as one of many raffle prizes. The Kate Spade, Michael Kors, and Coach purses can have a retail value of several hundred dollars each. They could be won that night by playing a friendly, but spirited, game of Bingo! Many women arrived early to preview the raffle prizes and handbags, and to enjoy the food and beverages that many brought with them. Event organizers Michelle DeLorge and Tori Connors, who both have children at the school, put many hours into planning this very popular and successful event. All proceeds were donated to the school.

Congratulations to all the lucky winners!

Stacy Verterame tries to wrestle this bag away from its rightful owner, Gretchen Goyette!

Sisters Sherry and Lisa Pio admire some of the designer handbags on display.
