IN ORDINARY TIME

WE ARE ALL LABORERS FOR THE HARVEST!

REFLECT

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

A CELEBRATION OF BLESSING

JULY 7TH - ENFIELD TOWN GREEN

"How very good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!" These words, spoken by the psalmist (133:1) long ago, are true yet today. Whenever God's people, regardless of denominational label, value and celebrate our common faith, we are part of something wonderful and pleasant.

In several weeks we will have an opportunity to express the wonderful unity of Christ's church in Enfield. The Enfield Conference of Christian Churches is sponsoring a Celebration of Blessing in conjunction with the Enfield July 4th Celebration. This Celebration of Blessing will take place on the town green on Sunday, July 7th from 11 am to noon.

This Celebration of Blessing will offer the churches in Enfield an opportunity to come together to witness to our common faith in Jesus Christ and to seek God's blessing on our city. The perception of our culture is that churches are divided, self-focused, and irrelevant. A united service can help overcome this perception by witnessing to our common faith in Jesus Christ, and by communicating God's love and concern for the people of our community.

This Celebration of Blessing is a significant event in the life of Christ's church in Enfield. Please join us on the town green on Sunday, July 7th at 11 am to come together in prayer and support our unity in Christ.

STATUE

The Little Sisters of the Poor at St. Joseph's Residence have graciously gifted us with a bronze statue of our Parish's patron saint, St. Jeanne Jugan. The statue is in the vestibule at Holy Family Church, greeting all who enter.

St. Jeanne Jugan Parish thanks the Little Sisters of the Poor for this beautiful statue!

At St. Bernard Church, the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Rev. William Hilliard; the chapel candle burns in memory of Msgr. John Regan.

Contact the SB church office for information about having the sanctuary or chapel candles burn for your intention.
