ST. JEANNE JUGAN PARISH BULLETIN

AUGUST 1, 2021
EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

REFLECT

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disoriented, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfies us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in His care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Our Vacation Bible School Islanders had a wonderful time venturing through our faith and finding the one True God and Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament!

Our Islanders rotated through various workshops learning about God and singing songs to give God praise.

Thank you to all the adult volunteers, Youth Group volunteers, staff, parents, and children who made Vacation Bible School a great success!

We would like to thank all the Youth Group students who were extremely helpful as Youth Counselors. We also thank our teachers who led us through our learning and fun: Mrs. Marco, Mrs. Zeni, Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Marco, Mr. Witkowski, and Mrs. Work. Thank you to our kitchen staff and custodians who came and served our children snack and lunch each day.

A special thank you to Fr. Golas for treating the students, staff, and volunteers to a cookout on Tuesday. Hamburgers and hot dogs grilled by our pastor! Yum!!!

We as a parish are very blessed to have wonderful families who entrusted their children to us for a week of fun and faith. It was our pleasure to spend the week with these children!

Vacation Bible School was a great success!

Mrs. Pat Keck – Director of Religious Education/Faith Formation K-10

Ms. Kristen Fitzsimons – Youth Minister

Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:15-16

Let your light shine here at the Parish of St. Jeanne Jugan!

RCIA classes will begin this Fall.

If you or someone you know is interested, please come and join us on a journey that you will never forget! Calling all unbaptized and baptized who need instruction to receive sacraments they may have not completed.
