FIND FREEDOM IN OBEDIENCE

UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, “obedience” is not a word we typically like to hear. It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I “have” to do, not “want” to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, “There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all.” St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God’s vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in His providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom.

At St. Bernard Church the Sanctuary candle burns in memory of Fe Shanahan, at the request of her husband, John.

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Faith.	A mustard seed, if you can find one.	Luke 17:5-6

DISCUSSION

When we come to Church, we hear a lot talk about faith. We read about faith in the Bible and we sing songs about faith, but what is faith? When we say that we have faith, it means that we believe something is true, even when we can't see it. I heard a story that might help us to understand it better.

One day, a little girl got lost in the woods on a farm near where she lived. The farmer who owned the land found the little girl and said to her, "Don't be afraid; I'll take you home."

The little child looked up at him, and with a smile, said, "I'm not afraid. I knew you would come; I was waiting for you."

"Waiting for me?" said the man. "What made you think I was coming?"

"I was praying that you would," she said.

"You were praying?" the farmer asked. "When I first heard you, you were just saying 'A B C D E F G.' What was that for?"

She looked up again and said, "I wasn't sure exactly what to say, so I was praying all the letters of the alphabet and letting God put them together the way He wanted them. He knew I was lost and He knew how to put the letters together better than I do."

Even though the little girl could not see God, she had faith that He loved her and cared for her. She had faith that if she asked Him to help her, He would.

How much faith is enough? Do we need to have a lot of faith, or will just a little bit do? The answer may surprise you.

The followers of Jesus said to Him one day, "Give us more faith."

Jesus answered them, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it will obey you." Do you know how big a mustard seed is? It is so small that you can hardly see it!

When we have faith in God, it isn't a question of how big our faith is, it is a question of how powerful our God is, and with God all things are possible!

Father, we don't ask You to give us more faith. We simply ask that You help us to use the faith that we have and trust You to do the rest. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The Giving Store

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH | 69 Pearl Street, Enfield, CT

Store open for donations: Friday, October 7th @ 11:00AM.

Well, we certainly needed jackets and sweaters this past week and I am sure there will be more of the same ahead of us. So far we are holding our own with fall clothing with one exception, little girls clothing. If you have a little girl in grammar school who has grown out of their sweaters, jeans, tees, dresses and PJs, please consider making a donation to the store. I'm sure they will be very appreciated. Your volunteers are hard at work transforming our displays to fall/winter and deserve a big round of applause for their efforts.

We ask for God's blessings for you, your family and friends and prayers for those who are ill.

BOX OF JOY

Box of Joy is here!

Please pick up a box. Each box contains instructions and item suggestions. We will be collecting boxes and monetary donations after each Mass until October 23rd.

PRAYER LINES

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH & ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line or the St. Martha Church Prayer Line? The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish. The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line." If you have a request for the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line, please call (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM. If you have a request for the St. Martha Church Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours.

*A NOTE FROM FR. GOLAS*

The priests of the Archdiocese of Hartford are required to attend the Annual Convocation of Priests by Archbishop Blair in Mystic, CT. The convocation will begin at 12PM on Monday, October 3rd and conclude at 12PM on Wednesday, October 5th. Parishes will be unable to grant funeral requests during the three days priests are away. The rectory offices at all Churches will be open during the three days the priests are away. During this time, the regularly scheduled Daily Masses will be cancelled. There is always something interesting that we learn at these gatherings.
