UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing His healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in Him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

— Father John Muir

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Recently, Fr. Cornelius Kelechi Anyanwu was assigned to St. Jeanne Jugan Parish and Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Hartford as a Parochial Vicar.

Fr. Kelechi was administrator of St. Martha Church a while back and recently was assigned in New Haven. Father will have weekend duties in Hartford and help out in our Parish during the week. Fr. Kelechi will be residing at St. Patrick Rectory.

On another note, I am doing therapy now and walking slowly. I hope to return to some of my duties, on a limited basis. I am feeling ok and only sometimes sore after some movement. I am still working on getting my strength and mobility. I thank you for your prayers and support.

God Bless, Fr. John

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Only Jesus can forgive sin and give us eternal life.	"Where's Waldo?" book or hidden picture puzzle.	Mark 1:36-37

DISCUSSION

A few years ago, "Where's Waldo?" books (also known in some places as "Where's Wally?") were very popular. You still see them in bookstores and libraries. How many of you have seen a "Where's Waldo?" book? If you have, you know what Waldo looks like. He always wears a red and white striped ski cap and a matching sweater. Waldo has a rather goofy smile and wears thick, black-rimmed glasses. In these picture books, Waldo is always in every picture, but he is very hard to find. You can spend a lot of time looking for Waldo. Can you find Waldo in this picture? (Allow the children to look for Waldo if time permits.) Look! There he is!

Looking for Waldo can be a lot of fun, but in real life, looking for someone can be much more serious. Our Bible lesson today tells about a day when a lot of people were looking for Jesus. They were looking for Jesus because they needed something that only He could give them. Jesus had been traveling around the countryside teaching, preaching, and healing the sick. He had become very popular, and everywhere He went there were great crowds of people. They came to hear Him teach about God's love and to be healed of their diseases.

One day Jesus went to visit in the home of Simon Peter. When He got there, Peter's mother-in-law was sick in bed with a fever, so they told Jesus about her right away. Jesus took her by the hand and helped her up. Immediately the fever left her. She was healed and went in and began to fix dinner for everyone. When the people heard that Jesus was at Peter's house, a large crowd of people began to gather outside the door. People brought their sick friends to Jesus, and He healed many people who had all different kinds of diseases.

The next morning, Jesus woke up before anyone else. He went outside to spend some time alone with His Father in prayer. Later, Peter and the other disciples went looking for Jesus. When they found Him, they said, "Everyone is looking for You."

Jesus answered and said, "Let's go to the nearby towns and villages so that I can preach there also. That is why I have come." So Jesus traveled all around Galilee teaching, preaching, and healing people.

People today are still looking for Jesus. They are looking for Jesus because they need something that only He can give them: forgiveness for sin and everlasting life. Are you looking for Jesus? The Bible says "If you search for Him with all your heart and soul, you can find Him." (Deut. 4:29) You will find him right here in the Bible.

Dear Father, many people today are searching for Jesus. We pray that today will be the day that they find Him. Amen.

FOUR CHAPLAINS MASS

Sunday, February 11, 2024
St. Patrick Church | 10:00AM Mass

The John Maciolek Post offers the Four Chaplains Mass each year at St. Patrick Church.

The USAT Dorchester was torpedoed by a German sub on February 3rd, 1943. As it went down, four chaplains helped others get off and gave up their life jackets. Here is a quote from a survivor: "As I swam away from the ship, I looked back. The flares had lighted everything. The bow came up high and she slid under. The last thing I saw, the Four Chaplains were up there praying for the safety of the men. They had done everything they could. I did not see them again. They themselves did not have a chance without their life jackets."

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AT ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Chapel offers individuals the opportunity to spend quiet prayerful time with Jesus. Eucharistic Adorers commit themselves to an hour of silent prayer each week in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Sacred Heart Chapel is currently open Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:00AM to 10:00PM at St. Martha Church.

There is interest in opening the chapel up on Fridays 9AM to 10PM. But before this can happen, each hour needs a committed person that will cover that hour each week.

Can you commit to spending one hour a week in the presence of the Lord?

If you are called to this beautiful ministry, please call Flo Radzewicz at (860) 216-7471.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Worldwide Marriage Encounter: Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time!

Mark 1:33-35: "The whole city was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with many diseases, and he drove out many demons. "Later "he went off to a deserted place to pray." Jesus preached and also went about healing those who were ill. Jesus also can heal our marriages and make them whole again. ### ST. JEANNE JUGAN PARISH PRAYER LINES

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call one of the St. Jeanne Jugan Parish Prayer Lines?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.

The Giving Store

ST. JEANNE JUGAN PARISH | 67 Pearl Street, Enfield, CT
Corner of Pearl Street & High Street

Donation Drop-Off:
Tuesday, February 6th from 11AM to 1PM

Now that January is finally behind us perhaps we can experience a little more sunshine and less rain and snow. In the meantime the volunteers at The Giving Store are kept busy keeping our inventory moving to those in need. One thing is for sure is the Knights of Columbus donation is keeping the children of Old Thompsonville and surrounding areas warm with the wonderful snowsuits for children of all ages. We were in need of the donation as our rack of children's snowsuits was practically empty. It doesn't seem possible that we have been operating the store in winter mode for the past three months and all too soon we'll be making a change to Spring. In the meantime, we thank you for your continued support.

We ask for God's Blessings for you, your family and friends; with prayers for a speedy recovery for Father Golas!

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Everyday Stewardship - February 4, 2024 - Gratefulness During Hard Times

Sometimes we can feel like we are living the life of Job: everything is going wrong all at the same time. Everyone finds himself or herself in a valley once in awhile. How we got there is not nearly as important as how are we going to get out.

Everyday stewards are called to be grateful for all things, large and small. It is easier to be grateful for obvious things like family, health, and life itself, than it is to look for the ordinary gifts in our life. When we cultivate a sense of wonder and thankfulness for the many little things in life we find ourselves more resilient in times of trial. We can look out our window and see all those gifts in creation. We can look around our home and see all the things people take too easily for granted. Imagine life without some of the simplest things like clothing, warmth, water, and furniture. There are people in this world that long for all of those things. But God has given them for your benefit and for you to share with others.

Before Lent begins in a couple weeks, take the time to create a list of at least 10 things that you normally take for granted. Keep that list handy and maybe add to it from time-to-time. When life seems hard and that cloud seems to hang over our heads, bring out the list and let gratefulness lift you up and out of your plight so that once again you can be about your Father's work. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

A veces uno se siento como si estuviera viviendo la vida de Job, como si todo va mal en un solo momento. Cada ser humano se encuentra en un valle de soledad de vez en cuando. Como uno llega allí no es tan importante de cómo uno va a salir.

Como discípulos, estamos llamados a dar gracias por todas cosas - grandes o pequeñas. Es más fácil ser agradecido por las cosas obvias como su familia, su salud, y su misma vida, más que darse cuenta de los regalos ordinarios de la vida. Cuando uno cultiva un sentido de asombro y agradecimiento por las cositas de la vida, se encuentra más fuerte en momentos de dificultad. Imagínese una vida sin las cosas sencillas como su ropa, la calidez, el agua, o sus muebles. Hay gente en este mundo que anhelan todas esas cosas que damos por hecho. Dios se las ha dado a usted por su beneficio y para que usted las comparta con los demás.

Antes de que la cuaresma comience en unas semanas, tome el tiempo para crear una lista de 10 cosas que típicamente toma dadas por hecho. Deje esa lista a su alcance y quizás agregue otras cosas de vez en cuando. Cuando se sienta abrumado o se le haga difícil su vida, saque su lista y permita que el agradecimiento lo levante y lo saque de su situación difícil para que pueda preocuparse por hacer el trabajo de su Padre de nuevo. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
