UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

— Father John Muir

WEATHER POLICY

The winter policy for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish is in effect for daily Masses Monday through Friday. The policy states that when Enfield Public Schools cancel or delay school on that day, the Daily Mass at Holy Family, St. Bernard, St. Martha, and St. Patrick Churches will be cancelled for that day as well; this includes the livestream for these Masses. This policy is in place for the safety of all.

The intentions for these Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. You may call the rectory of the Church where your Mass intention was scheduled to discuss a new date.

There are no candles, or lamps this week.

MASS INTENTIONS

REST IN PEACE

St. Jeanne Jugan Parish mourns the loss of our parishioners

Laura Caronna
Richard Fournier, Sr.

May they rest in the arms of the Lord, who formed them from the dust of the earth.

CEMETERY CLEAN UP FOR SPRING

Clean up at St. Patrick's King Street Cemetery and St. Adalbert Cemetery will begin the week of April 7th. We ask that all urns, containers and decorations be removed at this time and taken with you if you wish to retain them. It is very unsightly for discarded items to be left along the road.

Reminder: Artificial flowers are not allowed after April 15th since it is during the growing season. Check the Cemetery Rules sign, or call the Cemetery Office with questions at (860) 962-4001, ext 150.

Thank you for your cooperation in keeping our cemetery a serene and Godly place of repose for our loved ones!

Other area cemeteries are also in the process of clean up.

Honor Roll

From Fr. John,

I received a heartfelt thank-you letter from Sr. Frances, a Little Sister of the Poor from St. Joseph Residence. She expressed deep gratitude for your generosity in supporting her appeal for the Residence. Through the combined efforts of our four parish churches, she collected a total of $23,776.60.

I truly appreciate your tremendous support of the sisters and their mission to care for the elderly and those in need. Sister Frances also shared how warmly welcomed she felt that weekend, noting your kindness and willingness to assist them. The Little Sisters take a fourth vow of hospitality, and as a parish, we embody that same spirit of graciousness in honoring our patron saint, St. Jeanne Jugan.

Once again, thank you for your generosity and support.

Donation Drop-Off: Tuesday, April 1st from 11AM to 12PM

According to the calendar, spring is here, but the weather seems to have a different opinion. Regardless, we've decided it's time to start accepting Spring/Summer donations beginning the week of April 6th. Maybe displaying warmer weather clothing will encourage the season to cooperate! Then again, those April showers could be on their way. If you have any unused umbrellas in your closet or car, our shoppers would certainly appreciate them.

As always, we are incredibly grateful for your generosity in supporting our neighbors. May God bless you and keep you safe!

SJJ PARISH PRAYER LINES

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call one of the SJJ Parish Prayer Lines?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 150, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.

Paschal Candle

The Paschal Candle represents Christ, the Light of the World. The pure beeswax of the candle represents the sinless Christ who was formed in the womb of His Mother. The wick signifies His humanity; the flame, His Divine Nature, both soul and body. The Paschal Candle is lit each day during Mass throughout the Easter season until Pentecost.

This year's Paschal Candle at St. Bernard Church was made possible by a generous donation from:

Donald and Patricia Brierley in memory of 2025 is a Jubilee Year!

One of the things that makes this Jubilee of Hope different from other Jubilee celebrations is the fact that for the first time there is a Holy Door at a Prison. Another is that you can obtain an indulgence by doing corporal or spiritual works of mercy. While the theme of the Jubilee is Pilgrims of Hope, it is also called the Jubilee of Justice. The Jubilee's activities are meant to encourage Catholics to both receive God's mercy and invite participation in acts of mercy in our daily lives and communities. Pope Francis specifically asks us to consider working for peace and an end to conflicts, promoting human life, showing amnesty to prisoners, upholding the dignity of migrants, healing the sick, and accompanying the elderly. The Jubilee Year is a time to reflect on God's mercy in our own lives and work to extend that mercy to those around us.
