UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as He prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to His Father "that they may be brought to perfection as one" (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that He desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of His disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

In unity we show God's love to the world.	None.	John 17:20-26

DISCUSSION

I'm so glad to have all of you here today. Each of you brings something different that adds to our time together. (Name some things that stand out about individual children, and how they add to the group. Invite kids to share about others, as well, making sure one strength of each child is shared.)

We'll learn from the Bible today that when we're all united, that's one way we show God's love to the world. So let's do something to help us think about that.

Have children gather in a circle and hold hands. Have them stand and walk in their circle. Invite them to discuss ways the circle can represent believers being united in Jesus.

We're all different, but God works through all of us, and when we are all excited and working toward the goal of loving others together as one big circle, others will see God's love and want to join in. In the Bible, Jesus prayed for His friends that they would be united with Him and with one another. (Invite kids to share what they think that means.) It means we all work together to follow Him and love others. One way we can do that is to pray together like Jesus prayed.

Still holding hands, lead kids in a brief prayer. Allow kids to say prayers, if they want to.

It also means we celebrate Jesus together! We tell others about Him and we worship Him!

Invite kids to brainstorm what they do when they're really excited about something. Challenge the children to perform some of these actions without letting go of one another's hands. If time allows, invite them to sing a verse of a worship song they're all familiar with and celebrate Jesus together while still holding hands.

Being united in Jesus means we also pay attention to everyone in Jesus' family, like the people to our left and our right. We stop and comfort them when they're down. We're helpful and encouraging.

While still holding hands, have kids turn and speak encouraging or comforting words to their left and their right. If time allows, invite children to share some other ways they think people can be united in showing Jesus' love, and challenge them to perform an action to demonstrate that idea.

Today we've practiced being one in Jesus, and we can be one in Jesus in our lives, too. We don't have to hold hands. If we all love Jesus and love others, this is a way to show God's love to the world together.

God, help us to be united in Jesus so others can see Your love. In Jesus' name, amen.

SJJ PARISH PRAYER LINES

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call one of the SJJ Parish Prayer Lines?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 150, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.

Sacred Heart Rosary Rally

Traditionally, the month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. However, in recent times, this beautiful month-long devotion has been almost forgotten and the meaning of the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony with it. We must stand for what is true, good, and beautiful. Come make reparations for the Sacred Heart of Jesus and stand for traditional marriage.

Where: St. Martha Parish, 214 Brainard Road, Enfield, CT

When: June 14th at 12:00PM (Rain date for June 21st)

We will gather in front of St. Martha Parish, walk up to the side of the road, and make our stand there with a peaceful and prayerful protest.

For more information, contact Rally Captain Christopher at (845) 541-1314 or CaptCM54@gmail.com.

In my Love, Abide Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center

Men's Retreat: June 6-8, 2025
(If full, May 2-4, 2025 is open to all)

Jesus calls us to remain in love as the branches remain with the vine for life and sustenance. We know that Jesus prayed often and taught His disciples to do the same. Pope Francis has named this year a "Year of Prayer." He described it as "a year dedicated to rediscovering the great value and absolute need for prayer in one's personal life, in the life of the Church, and in the world."

We invite you to come and explore the depths of a life of prayer and learn ways to maintain the sacred connection to God through Christ, the true vine.

Conferences and workshops will be offered along with the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Celebration of the Eucharist.

Register at
holymfamilyretreat.org/themed-retreats.

2025 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Thank you to the parish families who have made a gift or pledge commitment to the 2025 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. If you have not yet had the opportunity, please consider prayerfully supporting the many "Good Works" of the Archdiocese. Every gift will be gratefully received and sincerely appreciated.

2025 is a Jubilee Year!

When Jesus announced His mission in the synagogue at Nazareth He read from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He proclaimed, "a year of favor from the Lord." (Luke 4:18-19,21)

This Jubilee Year of Hope is in many ways "a year of favor". By calling this Jubilee, Pope Francis invited us to "fan into flame the hope that has been given to us... by looking to the future with an open spirit and a trusting heart". This trust anchors us to the heart of Christ and opens us to be instruments of the Holy Spirit, whether or not we can make a pilgrimage to one of the designated basilicas.
