OUR CATHOLIC BOOK CLUB

Our winter selections focus on prayer.

Henri J.M. Nouwen writes in his book, Behold the Beauty of the Lord: "A spiritual life in the midst of our energy-draining society requires us to take conscious steps to safeguard that inner space where we can keep our eyes fixed on the beauty of the Lord." He goes on to provide 4 meditations calling us to pray with Icons: The Trinity, the Virgin Of Vladimir, the Savior Of Zvenigorod and the Descent Of the Holy Spirit. Nouwen provides perforated pages with pictures of the icons in the book. He encourages the reader to meditate. The book is printed by Ave Maria Press and available on Amazon.

Into The Silent Land, A Guide To Christian Practice Of Contemplation by Martin Laird, encourages the reader to a deeper experience of silence. It can be a companion book to Behold the Beauty of the Lord. However, each book can be used independently of the other. Printed by Oxford University Press, it is available on Amazon. If you wish to order a book, please contact Diana at the parish office.

NEW TO YOU LOOKING FOR MINISTRY LEADERS...It will reopen the first of April. If you have drop-offs during this time, please get them to school. Do not leave items on the doorstep.

If you would be willing to help run the shop, we are looking for new leadership of this ministry (individually or as a team). The finances and the calling of workers are covered, we just need help with the shop pricing and sorting. Contact Fr. Dave or the office if this ministry is of interest to you.

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their richest gifts to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

RCIA

Right of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process that welcomes anyone who has a desire to know more about the Catholic Church. It is not a program and there is no cost. It is a time to discover the beauty of the Catholic Church and grow in relationship with God. RCIA is tailored to welcome and respect each person on their unique journey of faith. There is no set time frame; everyone will proceed at their own comfort level with the help and support of our RCIA team.

If you wish to participate or know anyone who is interested, contact the parish office to register for the RCIA program or join us on Wednesdays at 6pm in the parish hall.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

IS 60: 1-6, PS 72:1-2,7-8, 10-13; EPH 3:2-3A, 5-6; MT 2:1-12

As we continue our celebration of the Christmas season, we observe today the great Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. The word “epiphany” means manifestation and throughout the Christmas readings we have seen that the newborn King is eager to reveal Himself to all those willing to accept His presence in their lives. From poor and humble shepherds to the international group of magi featured in today’s Gospel passage, Jesus makes it clear that He offers Himself as a gift to everyone.

We also see throughout the scriptures that God uses what is familiar to us to draw us to Himself. In the case of the magi – astrologers – He uses a star. Our Lord continues to speak to each one of us today. But we must be alert to “hear” and “see” Him in our daily lives.

How can we become better attuned to the ways God is speaking to us? We must strengthen our spiritual “senses” by spending time with the Lord in prayer every single day. In the same way that we set professional goals or exercise goals, we can set spiritual goals to ensure that we are taking the time to listen intentionally to God daily.

When we establish a regular, intentional time for prayer, we will find that the Lord continues to speak to us throughout the day. We will more easily recognize the “stars” He places before us to draw us into closer relationship with Him. We will begin to see that He is indeed present in our lives at every moment.

Religious Ed classes, coffee and donuts, and Sunday Morning Bible Study all will resume this Sunday after 8:30 am Mass. All are invited each week.
