SUNDAY CONNECTION:

Show and Tell

written by Br. John-Marmion Villa, BSC

Only Christian love — not weapons, not threats, not the media — can change hearts. It is love that prepares the way for the announcement of the Gospel. We must strive to imitate Jesus's style of love: show and tell.

FOOD FOR THE POOR

Please join us the weekend of February 23 & 24 to hear Fr. Victor Karls speak at the weekend Masses about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Fr. Karls will share personal witness about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Karls was ordained for the Redemptorists in 1970. He served in the Missions in Brazil, taught in the seminary, was Director of a Retreat House, consultant on Provincial staff, Director of Liguorian magazine and was Superior of the Liguori Mission House.

ENCOUNTER JESUS

Understand, Live, and Share your Faith!

St. John's parish recently purchased a kiosk from Augustine Institute that includes prayer pamphlets, CD's and various full-length books all addressing various topics on the Catholic faith. One CD will be featured every two weeks in the bulletin. These items are located in the parish hall.

It is our hope that this will bring about more adult catechesis and enhance our faith life and learning. May the Holy Spirit guide us to a stronger faith and greater understanding of Christ.

THIS WEEK'S FEATURE CD:

Fr. Barron illuminates with conviction that Jesus of Nazareth is the promised Messiah and revelation of God become man. He shows how Jesus fulfills the four tasks of the Messiah according to the Old and New Testaments and how the living legacy of Christ is proclaimed by the Church.

SERVERS FOR ST. JOHN'S FEB. 23 & 24

The words of the Psalmist echo the theme of all of today's readings, "Happy are they who hope in the Lord." As good stewards, firmly grounded in that hope, may we bear fruit in due season - assisting the poor, feeding the hungry, and consoling the sorrowful whenever we have the chance.

PRAY THE ROSARY

February is thought of as the month of Love. Set aside time for Adoration and prayer through the Eucharist and the Rosary. As you pray the rosary this month focus on a deeper love of oneself that we may share that love with others as the Heavenly Father shares His love with us.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

The Women's Bible Study meets every Tuesday, from 9-11am in the parish hall. All ladies are welcome and invited to join us. We are studying the series "Unlocking the Mysteries of the Bible" by Jeff Cavins.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

JER 17: 5-8; PS 1:1-4,6; 1 COR 15:12, 16-20; LK 6: 17, 20-26

Today's readings speak of an essential quality for the Christian steward — hope. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit (CCC 1817)." In many ways this is the very definition of a stewardship way of life — focusing on eternity as we live our daily lives and relying on God to provide for our needs and satisfy our deepest longings for meaning and happiness right now.

In today's Gospel from Luke, Jesus describes the true richness of life that is possible for those of us who are willing to live as his hope-filled disciples. We are all familiar with this passage in which Jesus reveals the Beatitudes: blessed are the poor; they have the kingdom of God. Blessed are those now hungry because they will be satisfied. Blessed are those who weep because they will laugh. Blessed are those who are hated, excluded and insulted because they are disciples of Jesus; they will be greatly rewarded in heaven. Jesus is describing here the character of one who is living a life of hope — the life of a Christian steward whose trust is firmly rooted in God and who is focused on others and eternity. It is not always an easy life, but it is a deeply meaningful life and one that leads to eternal reward.

Catholic Book Club and Sunday Morning Bible Study

Chapter 2, "The Wild Hawk of the Mind," in our book, Into The Silent Land, refers to the human mind as a Hawk, the bird sitting on a wire, scanning its surroundings, looking for food. It is focused on the task at hand while at the same time, aware of a need to know what is in the sky and the need to return to the nest. It sounds like the life of most people. As you read Chapter 2, it is helpful to remember that our prayers are as different as people are. Spontaneous prayer, scripture, a prayer book, the Rosary, meditation or contemplation are all about a conversation with God. We pray in community and we pray individually. Is there a scripture verse, a sentence or paragraph from this chapter that speaks to you?
