Limits

Today's readings continue the theme of humility explored last Sunday. All three readings today encourage us to admit that we have limits, and God has none. The poignant poetry of Wisdom resonates with all of us who have ever struggled for peace in situations we cannot control: "For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns." Saint Paul recognizes his own limitations, both physically (he is in prison) and spiritually: he cannot compel his friend to obey his wishes; he can only propose his request and respect Philemon's free will. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God alone can complete the good we wish to do in the world. While we thank God for the gifts we receive—and the families we love—we acknowledge that they are temporary, and humbly cling to God.

March for Life

Fr Matthew is inviting high school youth and their parents to consider joining him on the Youth March for Life Pilgrimage to Washington, DC.

Details: We drive tour buses up to DC and stay at a YMCA camp near Washington, DC. We participate in the annual March for Life, a peaceful march with thousands of others, while also visiting historical sites and churches. Dates are January 16-21.

Why go? This is a life-changing trip where young people get to grow in appreciation of the value of the gift of life, starting with their own life. Students routinely share that this trip is a powerful experience of God's love.

More info: <http://www.youthmarchforlife.org/> for videos showing past marches.

What next? Email pastor@canecatholics.com if you're interested (10-12 graders or adult chaperones).

Office Closed

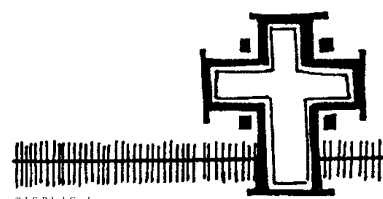

The Cane Catholic Pastoral Center will be closed on Monday, September 5 in observance of Labor Day.

+ Prayer for Protection During Hurricane Season +

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
