National Vocation Awareness Week Begins

November 7, 2022

O God, Father of all mercies, provider of a bountiful harvest, send Your graces upon those You have called to gather the fruits of Your labor; preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you. Open the hearts of Your children that they may discern Your Holy Will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ. Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by Your Divine Word and Truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant Your church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen

NOVEMBER IS

CATHOLIC BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

Black Catholic saints will be highlighted this month.

Saint Martín de Porres

Did you know that the only saint, of African origin, in the Western Hemisphere to date, is Saint Martín de Porres of Lima, Peru? Perhaps the best-known black Catholic from the Western Hemisphere, his father was a Spanish nobleman and his mother a black former slave. De Porres worked on behalf of the poor throughout his life. He was canonized by Pope John XXIII on May 16, 1962 during the height of the Civil Rights Movement. Saint Martín showed signs of the virtues of modesty, humility and charity for the poor, early in his life. As a Dominican Brother, Saint Martín founded an orphanage and a hospital. He also ministered to hundreds of unhappy people from Africa, who were forced into slavery in the new western world. Saint Martín is recognized in the Church as both the Patron saint of Peru and of the poor.

Advent Revival Mission

International mission preacher, Deacon Larry Oney, and his team from Hope and Purpose Ministries will present on December 4-6 at St James Catholic Church at 6:30pm. Fr. Matthew believes this will be the most powerful spiritual mission since he's been pastor. To promote this, he's looking for volunteers to drive a neighbor to church or join a Promotion Committee to invite parishioners. Signups for both are at the back of church.
