To celebrate National Black Catholics Month we will highlight a notable Black Catholic person or institution throughout November .

St. Augustine Catholic Church

St. Augustine Church was built on the site that was part of a plantation estate. Originally, it was the brickyard and tilery headquarters built in 1720. Claude Tremé, a Frenchman, married Julie Moreau and took title to the property. The couple subdivided the estate and sold off many lots to free people of color.

In 1834, Jeanne Marie Aliquot purchased the immediate property of the Tremé home from the City of New Orleans and became a major catalyst in the development of Saint Augustine. She moved the school from the French Quarter to the new property of the Tremé home.

Jeanne Marie sold the house to the Ursuline Sisters in 1836. They, in turn, sold the property to the Carmelites in 1840, who then took over the little school for colored girls and used the Tremé home for their motherhouse until 1926.

In 1941, the Ursuline Sisters donated some of the property to build St. Augustine Church. Prior to the church's dedication, free people of color began to purchase pews for their families. White people in the area campaigned to buy pews as well, thus the "War of the Pews" ensued. The mix of pews designated for free people of color, white people, ethnics and slaves resulted in the most integrated congregation in the country which continued throughout the church's history.

A monument, "Tomb of the Unknown Slave," stands in a garden plot of the church honoring the countless slaves who perished uncounted and unnamed in Faubourg Tremé. It consists of outsize marine chains welded together with shackles and iron balls to form a huge, fallen cross along with grave crosses. It is also dedicated to those who died ignominious fates during the American slave trade.

For nearly 200 years, Saint Augustine Catholic Church has welcomed people from every walk of life, creed, and color to worship side by side. Perhaps that is why Saint Augustine has not only served as the heart of the Tremé community but has also played an integral role in shaping the culture of the city of New Orleans.

Thanksgiving Blessings

At the Masses for Thanksgiving, we invite you to bring something from your Thanksgiving meal to be blessed. It could be a bottle of wine, a basket of bread, a pie, or whatever you want to bring. Put it on the table that will be provided and Father will bless them at Mass. Please mark your items with your name so that everyone gets back what they brought.

Monthly Living Rosary

ACTS Core team will be hosting a monthly living rosary on the 4th Wednesday of each month at OLOP hall. Upcoming dates are November 27 and January 22 at 6:30 pm. (Note that there will be no gathering in December due to Christmas Day.)

Thanksgiving Mass Schedule

Thanksgiving Masses will be celebrated as follows.

> Wednesday, Nov. 27

St. James / 6pm

> Thursday, Nov. 28

St. Philip / 6:30am

OLOP / 8am

Please note that the Pastoral Center will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 28 and Friday, Nov. 29 in observance of Thanksgiving.*

Poinsettia Tree

Notre Dame de la Paix Catholic Daughters #2316 is sponsoring its annual Christmas Poinsettia Tree at Our Lady of Peace. A plant can be purchased for $10 to memorialize one individual or one family.

Special envelopes for donations are available on the table at the back of church and in the chapel foyer. If using a personal envelope, include the name of the person or family being memorialized along with the name and phone number of the person making the donation.

Envelopes can be placed in any collection or the CDA box in the chapel foyer by December 18. Donations are accepted in the form of cash, check made payable to CDA #2316, or via Venmo @ Joyce-Stein-6. For more information, contact chairperson Catherine Hymel at 225-206-1171.

Happy Birthday Jesus Party!

All children ages infant to 12 years are invited to a birthday party for Jesus on Saturday, December 14th from 9:30-11:30am at Our Lady of Peace hall. Families will enjoy storytelling, cake decorating, and other activities. The cost is $12 per child, and children must be accompanied by an adult. The deadline to register is December 9th. Registration flyers are available at the back of each church.

CDA Scholarship Contest

The CDA is sponsoring a scholarship contest which is open to students in 8th and 12th grade. For applications and more information, parishioners of St. James and St. Philip can contact Maggie Loup. Parishioners of OLOP can contact Pennie Kliebert. Both individuals can be reached by calling the office (225.265.3953). The deadline for applications is January 21, 2025.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Youth Life West St. James is currently sponsoring a food drive which ends Monday, November 25. Non-perishable food items and monetary donations (to purchase milk, eggs, and bread) are being collected. Items will be delivered to those in need throughout the cluster community. Donations may be placed in the basket at any church or brought to the Pastoral Office.
