Celebrating Black History Month

Father John Augustus Tolton (1854-1897)

Father John Augustus Tolton was born in Missouri April 1, 1854. He and his mother and two siblings fled slavery in 1862 by crossing the Mississippi River into Illinois.

The young Tolton entered St. Peter's Catholic School with the help of the school's pastor, Father Peter McGirr. Tolton was baptized and received his first Holy Communion.

After graduating from high school and Quincy College, he began his ecclesiastical studies in Rome because no American seminary would accept him on account of his race. On April 24, 1886, he was ordained in Rome by Cardinal Lucido Maria Parocchi, who was then the vicar general of Rome.

Father Tolton was ordained for the southern Illinois Diocese of Quincy. Upon his return in July 1886, he was greeted at the train station by thousands. Father Tolton served in Quincy before going to Chicago to start a parish for black Catholics. The new church was named St. Monica and opened in 1893.

On July 9, 1897, Father Tolton collapsed during a hot day and died from a sunstroke at the age of 43. His cause for canonization was officially launched in 2010, and he was given the title "Servant of God" by the Vatican in February 2011. The research phase of his cause concluded on September 29, 2014.

The next step in his cause for canonization will be in February 2019, when a theological commission with the Congregation for the Causes of Saints will further investigate his life and virtue and consider granting him the title of "Venerable," which must receive papal approval. After that step, the cause would move forward toward beatification, for which a miracle through his intercession must be approved.

Mother Henriette Delille (1813-1862)

Venerable Mother Henriette Delille, a free woman of color was born in New Orleans. At the age of 24, Henriette experienced a religious conversion and proclaimed: "I believe in God. I hope in God. I love. I want to live and die for God." She founded the Sisters of the Holy Family in 1842. The community ministered to slaves at a time when educating slaves was illegal. A devout Catholic, Henriette worked to bring religious education and the sacraments of the Church to the many enslaved as well as free persons of African descent. Consequently, Henriette served as the godmother, sponsor, and catechist for many infants, youth, and adults presented for Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Holy Matrimony.

Mother Delille was the first U.S. born Black American formally postulatedfor canonization.

Bulletin Memorial Renewal

We still have a few families who have not renewed their bulletin memorial. Memorials are $50/ year and were due by Jan. 4, 2021. You can stop by the Pastoral Center at anytime or by placing it in an envelope marked "bulletin memorials" in the collections at any Mass. If you do not wish to renew your memorial or need more time to make your payment please call the Pastoral Center and someone can assist you.

Adorers Needed

We have been blessed to continue perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at Our Lady of Peace after being shut down due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Sadly, many committed adorers can no longer fill their hour due to old age, illness, or even death. Because of this we have been closing the monstrance during the hours that vacant. We are looking for adorers to fill the hours of: 8-9am and 4-5pm on Saturday, 12-1pm on Sunday, and 2-3pm and 11-midnight on Monday. If you have been considering signing up please consider taking one of the above hours. Contact Andrea Cazenave at (225)206-0001 or Rose Brazan at 265-3156. Please help us to keep the doors open to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Thank you and God bless!

Giving the Gift of a Home

5th Station Social Apostolate aids Jesus in carrying His cross by providing the monies needed to build a home for a needed family in Haiti. Because of Covid-19, the building of home in Haiti slowed down tremendously. But, great news, we have a recipient. They are the Lina Family from Anse d'Hainault Community Devt. in Grandeanse, Haiti. We all need a place to lay our heads in peace and thanks to you, one more family is now protected with sturdy walls, and a waterproof roof that is able to withstand bad weather. We are now collecting monies for the 2020 home. But we are not just collecting monies we are collecting blessings. One home at a time, one family at a time working together in one accord and putting our resources together a dollar at a time and a prayer at a time, we are building the Kingdom of GOD.
How to donate:
Please mail your check or money order and mail to:

Black History Month Celebration

Mass celebrating Black History Month will be held at 8am Mass Sunday, February 28. Mass will be celebrated by Fr. Josh Johnson. Everyone is invited to wear African attire to Mass.

Feast of Faith

The Gloria (1)
The Gloria, or Glory to God, follows the penitential rite. Both are acts of praise. In the penitential rite, we sing of the mercy of Christ. In the Gloria we praise God's saving action in the universe.
The Gloria is a relatively late addition to the Mass. It first appeared in the Roman liturgy in the sixth century, and then it was sung only by the pope —and only on Christmas! With time, the hymn came to be sung by bishops on major feasts, and then by priests; finally, it became the song of the entire assembly. With the advent of more elaborate musical settings, the people gradually stopped singing the Gloria, until this song of the people became the exclusive domain of the priest and the choir. But the liturgical reforms have restored it to its place as primarily the song of the assembly.
The language of the Gloria echoes the New Testament canticles. It may be begun by the priest, the cantor, and the entire assembly in varied combinations. The Gloria is sometimes called the "greater doxology," and in some ways it is like an extended, ecstatic version of the familiar doxology ("Glory be to the Father") prayed in the Divine Office and the rosary.
