Summer Faith Formation was a success!

Thank You!

Thank you to the Cane Catholic clergy, sisters, and staff along with all of our volunteers who helped make Summer Faith Formation a huge success. Without your hard work and dedication to the kids and our program this would not be possible!

Special thank you to the St. James Parish school system for allowing us to use their building and Captain Duran Steib and the St. James Parish Sheriff's office for assisting us with carpool.

Also, thank you to our special guest Fr. Danny Roussel, Deacon candidate Michael Parker, and Deacon Stephen Castille for sharing your love for Christ with the kids!

We truly appreciate you and all of your contributions!

Mass Changes

On Monday, June 21 morning daily Mass will return to the normal 8am schedule and funerals can now be held in the morning. Thank you for cooperation during Summer Faith Formation.

Volunteers Needed

Virtual Workshop

The Office of Black Catholics is inviting you to a Virtual Workshop via Zoom on "An Introduction to Racial Sobriety", June 19, 2021 at 9:00 am - 12:00 pm. Registration ends June 11, 2021. Please contact Deacon Alfred Adams; deaconal2@bellsouth.net or call 225.910 6080. The workshop introduces the audience to a unifying approach to begin the conversation on racisms. Racial Sobriety is witnessing to ourselves and others that our thinking, feeling and acting reflects our commitment to seeing each person as my brother or sister in the same human family. Racial Sobriety is becoming the change you want to see. Hope to see you there.

St. Philip Project

Based on parishioner feedback, current financials, updates to humidity control at St Philip, and the recommendation of St Philip Leadership Council members, we are going to move forward with the cleaning and repainting of the St Philip ceiling. The project will begin sometime in July. Masses and funerals will be in the St Philip large hall during the 5 weeks of the project timeline. The exact start date will be announced in the coming weeks.

Feast of Faith

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ. Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.
