

CANE CATHOLIC COURIER

The Parishes of St. James, St. Philip, & Our Lady of Peace

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Take care to guard against all greed,
for though one
may be rich,
one's life does not consist of possessions.

You Can't Take it With You

Stephen Covey in his book, The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, lists his second habit: Begin with the end in mind. Is that not the point of our scripture reflections today? We know we die. We know we “can’t take it with us.” If you’ve ever been tasked with cleaning out the home of a deceased person, you know how easily once-treasured items simply become another burden to deal with. Or you may have experienced how quickly the joy of owning the latest smart phone becomes as outdated as the model itself. So how do we think about all the stuff that we buy, accumulate, fret over where to store, and pay taxes on? Heaven forbid if we ever have to move!

Luke sets us on the right path when he affirms that we must be “rich in what matters to God.” Needless to say, he is not saying that possessions themselves are evil. Today’s psalm asks God— twice— to “prosper the work of our hands for us!” The danger is that, as one would put it, “we never have enough of what we don’t really need.” What does matter to God? What is the opposite of vanity? Kindness to one another, mercy, forgiveness, generosity to the poor and needy— all of these remain beyond death. These are what we can take with us when we die. The great mystery in all this is that God is never outdone in generosity; the more we give away, the more we have.

July 31 is also the feast day of Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits). He epitomizes richness in what really matters. His military and court aspirations evaporated after he was seriously wounded in battle. His subsequent change of heart led him to found one of the most influential religious orders in the history of the Church. If the opposite of vanity is wealth that’s remembered after death, Ignatius is almost appropriately honored today.

The Center of a Meaningful Life

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Daily Mass Time Change

Daily Mass at St. James on Wednesday, August 10 will be at 7:00am. This will be for one day only to enable Fr. Matthew to catch a flight in New Orleans.

Communion for the Homebound

If you are bringing communion to the homebound please call the office or text our texting line, 225-265-3952, with your name and the names of the people you are visiting. If you know of someone who would like to be added to the list, please call the office.

St. James Day— a Great Success!

Thanks to the committee and volunteers for all of their hard work in hosting St. James Day. The people and businesses that supported the event with donations are very much appreciated as well. Lastly, thanks to everyone who came out and enjoyed the festivities. Everyone's united effort made St. James Day a huge success!

Special Collection

The second collection on August 7 is for the benefit of the Building Fund.

Prayer of the Week

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Catechists Needed

Catechists are needed for the Fall Faith Formation 2022-2023 Session. If interested, please contact the office at 225.265.3953 or email Ms. Cristy Steib at csteib@canecatholics.com.
