Friendship

The reading today follows the first parts of 1 Corinthians chapter one. The first part is about Jesus dying on the cross. We pick up on the reactions of the Greek and Jewish people to this event. The Greeks are a culture that are focused on the wisdom of an action and the Jewish culture are focused on the power of a sign. Paul who is on the mission that he received from Jesus, is presenting a different understanding. The Greeks believed that their perception of God is totally unable to feel, any joy, sorrow, anger, or grief. Therefore, Christ could not have been God. They also believed that God was wise and would not have let himself be crucified. The Jews who were waiting for the Messiah that was to bring them into power over all nations and give them an earthly kingdom would have the power to overcome any thing on earth that would harm him. So, Jesus could not be the Messiah for which they were waiting.

Paul explains that they do not understand the actions of God. Only God can act with supreme authority. Jesus' death was not a sign of weakness but of power and wisdom so that the world would understand the true meaning of God's sacrifice and love he has for all of mankind. Paul continued on his mission, and we will hear more about him as Lent continues.

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

I pray that your Lenten journey has been a time of drawing closer to Christ and responding to his invitation to conversion.

As we identify an area of our life that needs change, we can be assured of God's help for us to face our weakness and experience a change of heart. Lent should include standing before our merciful God and asking for his forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, better known as Confession.

Please be reminded that a priest will be available in every church in the Archdiocese of New Orleans for the next 3 Wednesdays (March 6, March 13, and March 20) from 5:00 PM -6:30 PM. The heart of Jesus is open and he invites you to know and accept his mercy.

Whether we have been to Confession recently, or perhaps it has been many years, now is the time to know that his heart is open and eager to forgive. Pope Francis reminds us, "In Confession, Jesus welcomes us with all our sinfulness, to give us a new heart, capable of loving as he loves."

Let us remember one another in prayer as we continue this journey through Lent to the new life of Easter.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am

Sincerely in Christ,
