My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

2025 NOLACatholic Men's Conference: "I Trust in You" Saturday, March 15, 2025 St. Dominic Church, New Orleans

Registration is now open for the Archdiocese of New Orleans Men's Conference. This year's conference theme is "I Trust in You". Last year we focused on the loneliness crisis among men and the need to rebuild genuine friendship. For most men, the greatest obstacle to genuine friendship is the erosion of trust. On a daily basis, men contend with the dangers and difficulties of a sometimes-chaotic world. Building relationships of trust is a serious and delicate task that seems to have become more difficult day by day. How do we build mature relationships of trust with God, the Church, and one another when our lived experience makes trusting difficult? How can we find the peace and confidence in God's plan for us when we see so much chaos all around? How do we become the trustworthy men God, the Church, and our family and friends need us to be in order to fulfill our vocations and build a more peaceful and productive society? Please help us call all the men of our local Church of New Orleans to this important event! The conference will be held at St. Dominic Church on Saturday, March 15, 2025.

Woman

Every time we come to mass, we hear readings from the Bible, both from the Old Testament and the New Testament. Sometimes you may find them difficult to fully understand. You are not alone. We must consider that they were written in different times and in different languages. To fully understand their true context, we must follow the method that we use to understand the new and different things we are learning and living with today. It is important to spend time researching and studying to get the full impact they have on our lives.

In John's Gospel today, Jesus used the words, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?" For a number of years, I thought that Jesus was not very respectful the way he answered his mother. After some study I found that the Greek word Jesus used for woman (Gunai) is the same word he used for Mary, His mother, at the tender moment when he was on the cross, left her to the tender care of John. Another part of the translation, "What have I to do with this" can really be "Don't worry I have this."

I am not saying that you should not read or spend more time and give more attention to the Bible. What I am saying is that like many things in our lives, we need to spend time to better understand what the message is to fully understand the purpose and intent which it was written. What other book can we read that was written so long ago and has lasted so many years?

Prayer is only an integral part of our life if it is leading to a change in the way we live.

January 2025

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Each year during the last week of January, we join the nation in celebrating Catholic Schools Week. This year marks the 51st anniversary of Catholic Schools Week celebrations in our country! Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of New Orleans strive to uphold their tradition of academic excellence, grounded in the teachings of the Catholic Church. To remain successful, our schools rely on essential financial support.

Like most things in our world, there are significant costs associated with maintaining successful schools. Teachers must be paid a fair wage, facilities must be updated and maintained, and faculty and staff must work to be innovative in their educational practices. Recent years have been particularly difficult with many of our families, donors and benefactors bearing additional financial burdens. Despite these difficulties, it is our responsibility to make Catholic education more accessible and affordable.

By offering financial support to the ministry of Catholic education in the Archdiocese of New Orleans, you are affording children an opportunity that is otherwise out of reach for their families. Catholic schools help form disciples who live out our Catholic faith, and it is the responsibility of every Catholic to assist in these efforts. As a result, every parish in the Archdiocese of New Orleans will take up a second collection on January 25th – 26th. Thank you for your consideration in offering a gift at that time.

The funds collected through the second collection will support the Champions of Catholic Education tuition assistance fund. This fund will aid families that cannot afford the full cost of Catholic school tuition, and those experiencing financial difficulties. Our Catholic schools and families need your support.

Wishing you God's blessings in 2025 and with gratitude for your generosity, I am,

Gratefully in Christ,
