A tall, dark lighthouse stands on a rocky cliff overlooking the ocean. The lighthouse is illuminated from within, casting a bright glow. The sky is a vibrant mix of orange, red, and purple, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The ocean is dark and calm, with some rocks visible in the foreground.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?

Unity

All of our lives we are making decisions about one thing or another, some of them small and some of them can be very large. It is said that the largest financial decision that most of us make is buying a home. When we go about buying a home the first thing that comes to mind is location, we want it to be near to family or work or shopping or some other factor that appeals to us. Next, we need to think about how large a home do we need, the number of bedrooms, size of the lot and so forth. We seek advice from family, friends, and banks (to make sure we qualify). And the process goes on until we finally make the decision. The point being that we get all of the input available to us to come to a decision that is beneficial to all of us. We join together to unify as one.

Luke's Gospel today tells us about a coming together as one.

To get a better understanding of Luke's Gospel we must look at the events that brought Jesus and the apostles to the mountain. The Transfiguration appears in all of the Synodic Gospels. Those of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. And all accounts are basically quite similar.

Just before they started on their journey to the mountain, Jesus asked the apostles "who did the people say that I am." Then he asked them "who do you say that I am?" Peter answered that he knew that Jesus was the Son of God, the Messiah. Jesus realized that only His father could have revealed this to Peter. The fact that his Father had revealed his identity to Peter was a sign of the things to come.

Then He and the apostles completed a six-day journey to the Mount of the Transfiguration. Luke tells us that Jesus went up the mountain to pray. Jesus often called upon his father in prayer when there was an important decision to be made. Jesus prayed to his father about the course that he was on that would lead him to Jerusalem and to the cross.

Jesus, in his human nature, chose to go through the suffering and death for our salvation and he wanted to make his Father part of the decision-making process.

One of the most important parts of prayer is to allow God to become part of the decision-making process. In our prayers sometimes we spend time talking to God about what we want and what is happening in our lives. This communication is always good. It is also important to allow time to listen to God when he speaks to us about what he wants us to do. God wants to be a part of our lives and guide us to him. So don't be afraid to ask what he thinks. But don't wait for a voice like Moses or Abraham heard, God speaks in subtle ways, and sometimes when we read something related to Him and in a flash of understanding you have your answer. Sometimes the decisions we have to make in our spiritual life are far more difficult than the ones we have to make in our human life. When we decide to follow Jesus, it does not mean just coming to Church, or showing up to be married, or having our children baptized, receiving communion, or being confirmed. Following God means entering a spiritual relationship with him, a relationship that is present throughout the day as well as when we pray. We have to nourish this relationship. We have to avoid the things and people around us that turn us away from Him. We have to feed our spiritual life the food of union with God. Our relationship with God is shown in our actions. We are measured by how we act not by what we say we believe. When Jesus prayed on the Holy Mountain the Father showed his approval by glorifying his appearance and sending Moses and Elisha to assure him of his destiny.

Unity with God is our destination.

March 5, 2025, Pastoral Statement

Oppose Executions and a Culture of Death and Promote a Culture of Life

The Louisiana Conference of Catholic Bishops have consistently defended life from conception to natural death and remain deeply aware of the pain and grief that victims suffer, especially those who have lost a loved one through the crime of murder or crimes of violence. Upon the news of the restart of the process to execute human beings in Louisiana, the Louisiana Conference of Catholic Bishops state:

We are saddened by the recent notice to restart the process for the issuance of death warrants to execute human beings in Louisiana. This only contributes to the culture of death. We promote a culture of life, not death, in this great State we love. As bishops, we will continue to promote life from conception to natural death and work to end the execution of another human being.

St. Pope John Paul II proclaims "that not even a murderer loses his personal dignity, as God himself pledges to guarantee this. For this reason, whoever attacks human life, in some way attacks God himself" (Evangelium Vitae, #9)."

Strong statements of Pope Francis echo the foundational principles laid out by Saint Pope John Paul II's, Evangelium Vitae, that if the State can use non-lethal means to protect society, it should. In keeping with this teaching Pope Francis approved a revision to the Catechism of the Catholic Church # 2267 as follows:

"Today, however, there is an increasing awareness that the dignity of the person is not lost even after the commission of very serious crimes. In addition, a new understanding has emerged of the significance of penal sanctions imposed by the state. Lastly, more effective systems of detention have been developed, which ensure the due protection of citizens but, at the same time, do not definitively deprive the guilty of the possibility of redemption. Consequently, the Church teaches, in the light of the Gospel, that "the death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person, and she works with determination for its abolition worldwide."

As faithful citizens of this great state, we pray and understand the pain and suffering this has caused families and pray for the victims. As we continue to pray for the victims and their families, we pray that the State will not usher in a culture of death by facilitating death warrants and consider that mercy can be the highest form of justice. No method of execution is acceptable including nitrogen hypoxia (asphyxiation).
