Grace verses Greed

The first revelation of the coming of the Messiah can be attributed to the book of Genesis chapter 3:15 written about 1450 years before the first Christmas. The promise of this gift came shortly after the time of creation when our first parents began their life in the Garden of Eden. The devil was in the process of tempting Eve and God understood that grace could be overcome by greed. His answer was to send His son at the proper time to teach us the meaning and rewards of love both given and received. Jesus' human nature was a gift to us as the model of how to love and be loved. This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. He offers to each of us the promise of a day of resurrection and a joyful reward for our life here on earth. It can be a day of great celebration for us to meet God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Along with Mary, Joseph and all of the saints which we have read about. Also, a renewal with our family that lived before us and introduction with those who were born after us and all of our loved ones.

This is what Jesus came to reveal to us by His life and resurrection. This day is to show us the love God has for us which is upheld by the action of our savior Jesus Christ.
