Miracles

There is only one miracle that appears in all four Gospels, and we read about that on the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi. In each Gospel there is a story of the feeding of five thousand men and uncounted women and children with five barley loaves and two fish. Now here we are, in the middle of no-where-ville and all of Jesus' followers and because of his compassion he knew about their need for food. What should he do? His disciples had one idea, but Jesus could not send them away. He sat them down and then fed them.

It had been a long day, and they had come some distance so their need for food was apparent. All he had was five loaves and two fish but let us not forget that he is the Son of God.

His love moved him to action, and his concern brought them food for their bodies as his words brought sustenance for their spirit.

The Eucharist is one of the greatest gifts that God has given us, and it is something that should be partaken of as often as possible. In this sacrament we have the privilege of having the living presence of Jesus within our body. Holy Communion brings us to the realization that Jesus is always with us and available to us in a most intimate way to share our journey through this life.

Sometimes our human mind will block this understanding because our eyes cannot see this transformation, but God has given us many signs through time that confirm the real presence of Jesus in the host. There have been Eucharist miracles in Siena, Italy in August 1730, in Holland in the 14th century, in Mexico in July 2013 and in Constanca New York in April 1997. There are many more recorded miracles of the Eucharist which will help us to believe in the precious gift which Jesus has given us.

When you are invited to receive the Eucharist, you are called to the body and blood that Jesus assumed to save us. When you receive it please open your heart to accept all of the graces that God has given you. In the moments of prayer after you return to your seat thank God for all of the things that he has given you. And let the joy of his presence be with you all day.

We would like to thank Mike Giglio for his dedication to St. Joseph Parish for the past 7 years. For those of you who don't know, Mike has been in charge of the scheduling of Lectors/Eucharistic Ministers and the creation and maintenance of our Parish Facebook account. Mike, we would like to thank you for all your dedication and hard work!

We would also like to introduce you to Juliette Swiler, who will now be taking over the scheduling of Lectors/Eucharistic Ministers for St. Joseph Parish. She is currently in the process of updating the monthly schedules and names and contact information for all Lectors/Eucharistic Ministers. We thank her for taking over this important role and ask for your prayers and support during this transition. Her contact information is as follows: (504)931-2759 or juliette.swiler@gmail.com
