services promoting the dignity of all human life and honoring Our Lady. Each year, from early March through mid-December, Silver Roses are stewarded by Knights of Columbus councils along routes from Canada to Mexico. Every stop the Silver Rose makes throughout the pilgrimage is a rosary-centered occasion for Knights, parishioners and community members to pray for respect for life, for the spiritual renewal of each nation, and for the advancement of the message of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Perseverance

The widow, in Luke's Gospel today seemed to have the attribute of perseverance when going after something that she was focused on. She approaches the judge with that passion and had no plans of giving up. If we look at this it can relate to our approach to prayer. Does this mean that all that is necessary is for us to be persistent in our request from God, and we can expect all of our prayers to be answered? I am afraid not. Prayer, even diligent prayer like everything else has ground rules. First, we must have faith. There is really no point in praying for something if we do not believe that God will answer our prayers. It could be that God not only hears our prayers but also sees our confidence in prayer.

The second rule to prayer is we must give God a helping hand. When we pray to God to help us when we are sick or a friend or loved one is sick, we must do our part. See the doctor, follow his instructions, eat and rest as ordered and have a cheerful outlook. The idea is to pray as though everything depends on God and act as if everything depends on us.

Also, we really can't expect to get everything that we pray for. Nothing in life works that way. We can turn down our child's request because we can see it is not the right thing for them. Why then cannot God Our Father, do the same?

He always answers our prayers but sometimes He is going to say no. The good news is that delay is not necessarily denial. So, keep on praying. Next, prayer has to be unqualified. Leave the "ifs, ands, or buts" out of your prayers. If you do this, I will do that. And finally, we must take a closer look at the prayer we say the most, The Our Father. In the line Thy kingdom come, the next phrase is THY will be done, it is Not MY will be done. The object of this prayer is not to try to ask God to change His mind but to bring our minds into line with his. Plus, we should not want God to change His mind about us because He loves all of us.

Prayer is not so much for us to change the way God thinks but about the way we think about God.
