30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 18:14)
Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God’s incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

30º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

“... porque todo el que se engrandece será humillado, pero el que se humilla será engrandecido.” (Lucas 18:14)
El orgullo y el ego son la raíz de la mayoría de nuestros pecados. Pensar que su tiempo es demasiado valioso o que su talento es superior al de cualquier otro, o que su dinero le da estatus, es otra manera de poner esas cosas antes que a Dios. El orgullo es lo opuesto a la humildad. Recuerde, todo lo que tenemos y lo que somos es un don de Dios. Deberíamos ser humildes por la increíble generosidad de Dios y ser agradecidos por todo lo que se nos ha dado. Al final, la gratitud nos lleva a la humildad.

Meet Our Parish Collaborative Representative:

Norma Loja

Norma Loja is grateful for the welcoming spirit of St. Bernard's, where parishioners greet one another before, during, and after Mass, creating a true sense of belonging. For the past nine years, Norma and her family have been active in parish life, from First Communion and baptisms for her children and nephews to ongoing parish involvement. She also owns Auburn Florist, serving the community for all flower needs. Norma hopes to see the parish overcome financial struggles and bring the English- and Spanish-speaking communities closer together.

who will be baptized this weekend!
a quienes fueron bautizados en fin de semana!

During the Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those...who experience hardships of any kind. Believers should be demanding...dignified conditions for prisoners, abolition of the death penalty, respect for human rights...

(How have you been a sign of hope to those in difficult situations?)

Durante el Año Santo, estamos llamados a ser signos tangibles de esperanza para aquellos que... experimentan dificultades de cualquier tipo. Los creyentes deben exigir... condiciones dignas para los prisioneros, la abolición de la pena de muerte, el respeto por los derechos humanos...

(¿Cómo has sido un signo de esperanza para quienes se encuentran en situaciones difíciles?)

If you would like to donate candy for our Neighborhood Halloween Fest, please bring bags of candy to the rectory porch during the week, or place them in the basket at the back of the church when you attend Mass on the weekend. Thank you for your generosity!

Si desea donar dulces para nuestro Festival de Halloween del vecindario, le pedimos que traiga las bolsas de dulces al pórtico de la rectoría durante la semana, o que las coloque en la canasta al fondo de la iglesia cuando asista a Misa el fin de semana. ¡Gracias por su generosidad!
