Reflection

for this Sunday: Today's reading is taken from John's account of the Last Supper. One of the primary themes of John's Gospel is to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel. In His metaphor of the vine and the branches, Jesus is referencing Hebrew Scripture. In the Hebrew Scriptures, Israel is the vineyard, and Yahweh himself tends the vineyard.

In today's passage, Jesus speaks about His relationship with His disciples. He teaches them that His relationship with them will not end after His death; He will remain with them always. This unity between Jesus and His disciples is the basis for their ability to continue the work that He began. Similarly, Jesus' presence with us through the Gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to continue the work of love and reconciliation that He began.

Jesus also teaches His disciples the importance of the words He has taught them. Just as Jesus will remain in the disciples, so too will His words. We come to know Jesus through the Scriptures: the living Word of God. Our commitment to be Christ's disciples is sustained through God's Word, strengthened by our life of prayer, and nourished by the Eucharist. Through the Eucharist, Jesus dwells in us, remains with us, and transforms us so that we might bear fruit in His name.

We see many people who act in ways that show their commitment to serve their neighbor by feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, sheltering the homeless, and giving alms to the poor. Jesus promises us that these actions will bear fruit whenever we undertake them in His name.

APRIL IS NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

Did you know? The Diocese of Burlington keeps children safe through adult trainings and background screenings.... As part of the Diocese of Burlington's continuing commitment to protect young people, adults who have direct contact with minors at our parishes and Catholic schools must complete all safe environment requirements. These requirements include: participation in annual child abuse prevention training; submission of background check paperwork; reading of the Diocesan Policies on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry; AND signing of an annual Code of Conduct. All of these requirements can be completed through the Diocese of Burlington's online adult training program called Safe and Sacred by Proud to Protect, Inc. To get started with the program, visit www.vermontcatholic.org. Contact your parish office, Catholic school, or the Office of Safe Environment Programs for more information.
