June 3, 2018 • The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The “new covenant” described in Hebrews is every bit as real as the dramatic blood-splashed covenant of Exodus. Jesus transformed the covenantal experience for us, putting an end to bloody animal sacrifices. The author of Hebrews explains: “he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.” Jesus died, once for all, offering his own blood in atonement for our sins. On the last night of his life, Jesus commanded us to offer bread and wine—which he transforms into his own Body and Blood—in remembrance of his perfect sacrifice. Although pouring wine from a bottle is in a different category from killing a bull and sprinkling its blood, we must never forget that the wine we offer truly becomes the actual Blood of Christ.

ROYAL PRIESTHOOD

Jesus’ free choice to die for us on the cross perfected the long tradition of priests offering bloody sacrifices on the altar. As our reading from Hebrews tells us, “Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be.” In his death, Jesus served as both the priest and the victim, “once for all.” Jesus died for us. For all of us. He knows us each by name and raises us all to undivided, unprejudiced dignity. In doing this, Jesus makes us part of a “royal priesthood.” Under the new covenant, we are baptized into the common priesthood of Jesus and invited to make a sacrifice of our very selves. God still calls ordained priests to offer the sacrifice of Jesus’ Body and Blood every day on our altars. This is a great gift, and the focus of our solemn feast today. Our common baptismal priesthood also reminds us that each one of us participates in the great sacrifice of Jesus when we offer our love and deeds on the altar of our hearts.

Today's Readings: Ex 24:38; Ps 116:12–13, 15–16, 17–18; Heb 9:11–15;
Mk 14:12–16; 22–26

3 de junio de 2018 El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

La “nueva alianza” descrita en la carta a los hebreos es tan real como el dramático convenio sangriento del que habla el libro del Éxodo. Jesús transformó la experiencia de la alianza para nosotros, poniendo un fin a los sacrificios de animales. El autor de la carta a los hebreos explica que “él entró de una vez por todas al santuario, no con la sangre de corderos y becerros sino con su propia sangre, obteniendo la redención eterna”. Jesús murió, una vez por todos, ofreciendo su propia sangre en expiación de nuestros pecados. En la última noche de su vida, Jesús nos ordenó ofrecer pan y vino, que él transforma en su Cuerpo y Sangre, en recuerdo de su sacrificio perfecto. Aunque poniendo vino de una botella es una categoría diferente de la de matar a un toro y rociar su sangre, nosotros nunca debemos olvidar que el vino que ofrecemos verdaderamente se convierte en la Sangre de Cristo.

SACERDOCIO REAL

La elección libre de Jesús de morir por nosotros en la cruz perfeccionó la larga tradición de sacerdotes que ofrecían sangrientos sacrificios de animales en el altar. Así como nuestra lectura de la carta a los hebreos nos dice: “Cristo se presentó como sumo sacerdote que nos obtiene los bienes definitivos”. En su muerte, Jesús fue tanto sacerdote como la víctima “una sola vez y para siempre”. Jesús murió por nosotros. Por todos nosotros. Él conoce a cada uno de nosotros por nombre y nos eleva a una dignidad indivisible y sin prejuicios. Al hacer esto, Jesús nos hace partícipes de su “sacerdocio real”. Bajo la nueva alianza, somos bautizados en el sacerdocio común de Jesús e invitados a hacer un sacrificio de nosotros mismos. Dios todavía llama a sacerdotes ordenados a ofrecer el sacrificio del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo todos los días en nuestros altares. Este es un gran don, y el centro de nuestra solemne festividad hoy. Nuestro sacerdocio bautismal común también nos recuerda que cada uno de nosotros participa en el gran sacrificio de Jesús cuando ofrecemos nuestro amor y obras en el altar de nuestros corazones.

Lecturas de hoy: Ex 24:38; Sal 116 (115):12–13, 15–16, 17–18; Heb 9:11–15;
Mc 14:12–16; 22–26
