Connecting as a family through the weekly readings!

1st Reading Question:

Proverbs teaches us that the wisdom of God was present with God throughout creation, playing on earth and finding delight in humans. What brings delight to your life?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul encouraged believers that in Jesus we have peace with God and through the Holy Spirit we have the love of God in our hearts. Why do you think these fruits of the Holy Trinity have been given to us?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his disciples that the Spirit gives to believers everything the Father has given to the Son. When have you been generous to others?

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Each year, we are invited to gaze into one of the deepest mysteries of our faith. Trinitarian truth cannot be derived by pure reason but was revealed to us by God. It is central to our faith but also beyond full understanding. There are popular analogies: the Shamrock –three leaves but one stem; water can exist as ice, liquid or steam but is always H₂O; or one person can be a son, father and husband. These may be helpful, but if taken too far can lead to serious error. They might start to suggest that each Person is not fully God, that God is just one Person acting in different modes, or that one is “lesser” than the other Persons.

Sunday's Gospel is an example of Trinitarian Truth revealed by Jesus. Jesus distinguishes himself from the Holy Spirit yet affirms their unity with the Father, the Spirit “will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears” declaring what belongs to the Father and the Son. Jesus also reveals that the Trinity is united in mutual self-giving: The Father gives all to the Son, “Everything that the Father has is mine”; the Son shares all with the Spirit, “(The Spirit) will take what is mine and declare it to you”; and the Spirit leads us into the fullness of Truth, “he will guide you to all truth”.

On Trinity Sunday the Church calls us to awe and gratitude before the mystery of God's inner life. We are not called to solve this mystery, but by the power of the Holy Spirit at our baptism, invited to share in it.

May our contemplation of the Trinity deepen our faith, hope, and love—and draw us ever closer to the heart of God.

Deacon Bob

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

Cada año, se nos invita a contemplar uno de los misterios más profundos de nuestra fe. La verdad trinitaria no puede ser derivada únicamente por la razón, sino que nos fue revelada por Dios. Es central para nuestra fe, pero también está más allá de nuestra plena comprensión. Existen analogías populares: el trébol –tres hojas pero un solo tallo; el agua puede existir como hielo, líquido o vapor, pero siempre es H₂O; o una persona puede ser hijo, padre y esposo al mismo tiempo. Estas comparaciones pueden ser útiles, pero si se llevan demasiado lejos pueden conducir a errores graves. Podrían empezar a sugerir que cada Persona no es plenamente Dios, que Dios es solo una Persona actuando en diferentes modos, o que una es “inferior” a las otras Personas.

El Evangelio del domingo es un ejemplo de la Verdad Trinitaria revelada por Jesús. Jesús se distingue del Espíritu Santo, pero afirma su unidad con el Padre: el Espíritu “no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que ha oído”, declarando lo que pertenece al Padre y al Hijo. Jesús también revela que la Trinidad está unida en una entrega mutua: el Padre lo entrega todo al Hijo, “todo lo que tiene el Padre es mío”; el Hijo comparte todo con el Espíritu, “(el Espíritu) tomará de lo mío y se lo anunciará a ustedes”; y el Espíritu nos guía hacia la plenitud de la Verdad, “él los guiará a toda la verdad”.

En el Domingo de la Trinidad, la Iglesia nos llama a la admiración y a la gratitud ante el misterio de la vida interior de Dios. No estamos llamados a resolver este misterio, sino que, por el poder del Espíritu Santo en nuestro bautismo, somos invitados a participar en él.

Que nuestra contemplación de la Trinidad profundice nuestra fe, esperanza y caridad, y nos acerque cada vez más al corazón de Dios.

Diácono Bob

Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God:

"The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways,

the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago;

from of old I was poured forth,
at the first, before the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,

when there were no fountains or springs of water;

before the mountains were settled into place,

before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made,

nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,

when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;

when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth;

when he set for the sea its limit,
so that the waters should not transgress his command;

then was I beside him as his craftsman,
and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 8

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters:

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions,

knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.

He will not speak on his own,

but he will speak what he hears,

and will declare to you the things that are coming.

He will glorify me,

because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

Everything that the Father has is mine;

for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." — Jn 16:13-14

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Primera Lectura Proverbios 8, 22-31

Esto dice la sabiduría de Dios:
"El Señor me poseía desde el principio,
antes que sus obras más antiguas.
Quedé establecida desde la eternidad, desde
el principio,
antes de que la tierra existiera.
Antes de que existieran los abismos y antes de que brotaran los manantiales de las aguas,
fui concebida.

Antes de que las montañas
y las colinas quedaran asentadas, nací yo.
Cuando aún no había hecho el Señor la tierra
ni los campos
ni el primer polvo del universo, cuando él afianzaba los cielos,
ahí estaba yo.
Cuando ceñía con el horizonte la faz del
abismo,
cuando colgaba las nubes en lo alto,
cuando hacía brotar las fuentes del océano, cuando fijó al mar sus límites
y mandó a las aguas que no los traspasaran, cuanto establecía los cimientos de la tierra,
yo estaba junto a él como arquitecto de sus
obras,
yo era su encanto cotidiano;
todo el tiempo me recreaba en su presencia,
jugando con el orbe de la tierra
y mis delicias eran estar con los hijos de los hombres".

Salmo Responsorial Salmo 8, 4-5. 6-7. 8-9

¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder!
Envía tu espíritu, Señor, y renueva la faz de la tierra.

Segunda Lectura Romanos 5, 1-5

Hermanos: Ya que hemos sido justificados por la fe, mantengámonos en paz con Dios, por mediación de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Por él hemos obtenido, con la fe, la entrada al mundo de la gracia, en el cual nos encontramos; por él, podemos gloriarnos de tener la esperanza de participar en la gloria de Dios.

Más aún, nos gloriamos hasta de los sufrimientos, pues sabemos que el sufrimiento engendra la paciencia, la paciencia engendra la virtud sólida, la virtud sólida engendra la esperanza, y la esperanza no defrauda, porque Dios ha infundido su amor en nuestros corazones por medio del Espíritu Santo, que él mismo nos ha dado.

Evangelio Juan 16, 12-15

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Aún tengo muchas cosas que decirles, pero todavía no las pueden comprender. Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de la verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder. El me glorificará, porque primero recibirá de mí lo que les vaya comunicando. Todo lo que tiene el Padre es mío. Por eso he dicho que tomará de lo mío y se lo comunicará a ustedes".

"Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder. El me glorificará, porque primero recibirá de mí lo que les vaya comunicando". — Jn 16, 13-14

Welcome

Acer Salinas!

Seminarian
Diocese of Orange

As St. Irenaeus reminds us of in his writings "The glory of God is man fully alive"! I'm very happy to be here with you all and look forward to joining this community as we work together for God's greater glory. My name is Acer Salinas, and I'm a seminarian for the Diocese of Orange. I've been assigned to your parish for my summer immersion. I was born and raised in Santa Ana; my home parish is Christ Our Savior. I'm the youngest of three and the first to leave home. I'm currently receiving my formation at Bishop White Seminary in Spokane, Washington and studying my philosophy at Gonzaga University. Many of you might have heard of Gonzaga if you watch College basketball. Before entering seminary, I was doing an internship in the Office for Worship at the Diocese and was also the Master of Liturgical Ceremonies for Bishop Vann and Bishop Freyer. Growing up I played roller hockey for my school and assisted my parish as an altar server. Some things I enjoy doing in my spare time is spending time with my family, brother seminarians and friends from the university. I also enjoy reading (a lot of philosophy at this point) and ceramics. I look forward to meeting and getting to know you all in the short time which I will be spending with you. Please keep me in your prayer and know of my prayers for your parish community.

DISCOVER OUR PROGRAMS

STEM

HELP YOUR CHILD SHINE THEIR LIGHT BRIGHTLY FOR THE WORLD!

At St. Joseph Catholic School, our STEM program—powered by SmartLab Learning—invites students in grades 3-8 to explore the dynamic world of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics through hands-on experiences. It's not just about building robots or learning code; it's about sparking creativity and nurturing the skills students need to thrive in the 21st century.

WHAT MAKES OUR STEM PROGRAM SPECIAL?

- SmartLab Learning: Through engaging, interactive tools, students discover that learning can be fun, empowering, and meaningful.
- Project-Based Learning: Students take on real-world challenges—from building structures to designing programs—that foster both collaboration and independent thinking.
- Innovation Meets Faith: Just as St. Joseph used his God-given gifts to create beautiful things, we encourage our students to use their talents to innovate, design, and build with purpose.

Let's nurture the innovators and creators of tomorrow!

PERFORMING & VISUAL ARTS

At St. Joseph Catholic School, we believe that every child has God-given gifts, and through our vibrant Performing & Visual Arts Program, students learn to express themselves, grow in confidence, and create beautiful things in the spirit of St. Joseph.

Just as our patron saint used his talents to honor God through his craft, we encourage our students to let their creativity shine through music, art, drama, and performance.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS TO SHINE

Our performing & visual arts program offers a variety of ways for students to discover and develop their talents.

- Junior Thespian Troupe #10415
- Spring Musical (Grades 1-8)
- Drama Club
- Music for grades K-8
