

Spiritual Motherhood

The Transforming Power of the Feminine Genious

We are almost there! Just a few more days until we get to be together again, and we are excited to get started.

This Thursday, September 10th, is our Open House. Please stop by to pick up your book and double-check your registration.

If you are registered for the morning session, come between 9:45 and 10:00 a.m.

If you are registered for the evening session, come between 6:45 and 7:00 p.m.

We will be in the Parish Center courtyard. If it decides to rain on us, we will move into one of the rooms in the Parish Center.

This really is meant to be a quick in-and-out stop. We would really appreciate it if you can come during the Open House time because it makes our first day of study so much easier. It gives us a chance to make sure everyone's registration is correct, books are in the right hands, and any little situations that need attention can be taken care of ahead of time.

We would much rather handle those things Thursday the 10th than be running around trying to fix them while everyone is arriving for the first study!

That way, when we come together on September 17th, we can actually start on time, get settled into our groups, have something to eat, and enjoy being together.

If you cannot make it Thursday, no problem. Just let us know and we will have your book ready for you the following week.

Then on September 17th, the real fun begins!

Come at 9:45 a.m. for the morning session and enjoy a light breakfast, or 6:45 p.m. for the evening session for appetizers and a drink.

You will get settled in with your new group, and we will watch a video that gives us a quick introduction to Spiritual Motherhood and what it means for us as daughters of the King.

We will talk about what stands out to us and how we can actually live this out in real life — at home, at work, and with our friends and family.

We are really looking forward to seeing everyone again, meeting our new ladies, and beginning this year together. It is going to be a great one!

LET US PRAY

For Those Who Are Suffering

Lord, be especially close to the women who are carrying pain, worry, grief, illness, or struggles that others may not see. Give them the peace that surpasses all understanding, and remind them that You are with them in every moment.

For Our New Ladies

Lord, bless every woman who is joining us for the first time. Help her feel welcomed, comfortable, and loved. May she quickly discover that we are not here because we have everything figured out, but because we want to grow together, encourage one another, and become friends as we grow closer to You.

For Those Making Big Decisions

Lord, be with those who are facing important decisions. Quiet the noise around them and give them wisdom, patience, and clarity. Help them discern Your will and give them the courage to follow where You are leading.

For All of Us

Lord, may this year be more than just another Bible study. Open our hearts, deepen our friendships, strengthen our faith, and help us carry what we learn beyond our tables and into our homes, families, workplaces, and communities.
