

Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church

BECAUSE OF THIS GOD RAISED HIM UP TO THE HEIGHTS OF HEAVEN AND GAVE HIM A NAME THAT IS ABOVE EVERY OTHER NAME
SO THAT AT THE NAME OF Jesus

EVERY KNEE WILL BOW IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH AND UNDER THE EARTH AND EVERY TONGUE WILL CONFESS THAT JESUS CHRIST IS LORD TO THE GLORY OF GOD THE FATHER

Your attitude should be the same
that Christ Jesus had.
Though he was God,
he did not demand
and cling to his rights
as God.

He made himself
nothing;
he took the humble position of a slave and appeared in human form...
he obediently
humbled himself
even further by dying a criminal's death
on a cross.

POPE FRANCIS' INTENTION FOR OCTOBER

We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

TABERNACLE LAMP

This week, the Tabernacle Lamp in the Sanctuary burns for

† All Souls in Purgatory †

ALTAR FLOWERS

The beautiful flower arrangements adorning the altar this weekend were donated for

Terry & Wally Goodey

IN MEMORIAM

With deepest sympathy we inform you of the death of Lawrence Otillo, husband of Beverly Otillo and father of Daniel, Jay and Neil. Please remember the Otillo family in your thoughts and prayers.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

First Reading – Ezekiel 18:25-28

God is fair and His gift of forgiveness is available to all of us who seek repentance for our sins.

Psalms 125:4-9

Christian stewards seek the Lord's teachings as the pathway from sin.

Second Reading – Philippians 2:1-11

In imitation of Christ, Christian stewards, united in the Church, humbly serve God and one another.

Gospel – Matthew 21:28-32

As Christ's disciples, we should always strive to find and do God's will. Conversion of our hearts and believing in Christ are fundamentals of Christian stewardship.

Stewardship Thought

The first son in today's Gospel said he would do his father's bidding, but did not. The second son balked at first, but then repented and did as he was asked. What service is God calling me to do? Which son am I more like?

(Our Sunday Visitor, ibid., page 13).

OCTOBER HAPPENINGS

Sunday, October 1st: Join us by the picnic benches with your fur-babies for the annual Pet Blessing at noon. Please bring a donation to the local pet shelter to help those unfortunates that do not have a forever home. Please have your animal either leashed or in a cage for their safety.

Also on October 1st, the annual Life Chain will take place in Slidell. Come join us at our spot on the sidewalk outside Slidell Memorial Hospital, and lend a voice for those who have none as we pray for an end to abortion.

Saturday, October 14th: Join us at the annual Rosary Rally at noon in Poitevent Park off of Highway 41. Join thousands of people across the nation as we lift our prayers to Mother Mary as we pray for America. The rosary will be led by Father Kevin.

Saturday October 28-29th: Camp-o-ween! Come out for fun, games, food and family. Decorate a tent for tent-or-treating. This year is our Heroes Edition. Dress up as a superhero, first responder or your favorite saint.

ROSARY CONGRESS

October 4-7, 2023

For Lift, reparation, and peace in our State, Nation and World.

The Rosary Congress will travel to 3 different parishes for 24 hours of constant adoration with a Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet being said at each hour except during mass times. Our Lady of Lourdes will host the first day, Oct. 4th, St. Luke's will host the second day, Oct. 5th and St. Margaret Mary will host Oct. 6th.

PASTOR'S CORNER

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

The Rosary is the “epitome of the whole Gospel” (St. Paul VI). While occupying the senses with the “praying of the beads” the one who prays the rosary prayerfully reflects, meditates, on the mysteries of Christ’s life. These mysteries, represented by the five groups of ten beads are taken from the Gospel, and from the Church’s own reflection on the Gospel down through the centuries—especially with respect to the role of the Blessed Virgin. She is the Woman (Gen. 3:15) from whom Christ took His human nature, as well as the Woman who cooperated in His Redemptive mission to its completion (John 19:26-27).

The purpose of the Rosary, therefore, is a deeper understanding of all the mysteries concerning Christ. A mystery is something divine, because the Persons associated with it are divine. Human reflection alone reaches a limit of understanding. But by seeking God in what we can know by prayerful reflection, we dispose ourselves to His grace and to a deeper understanding of the truths of the Faith, and of ourselves in light of them.

Catechism 2708 says meditation engages thought, imagination, emotion, and desire. This mobilization of faculties is necessary in order to deepen our convictions of faith, prompt the conversion of our heart, and strengthen our will to follow Christ. Christian prayer tries above all to meditate on the mysteries of Christ, as in lectio divina [prayerful contemplation of Scripture] or the rosary. This form of prayerful reflection is of great value, but Christian prayer should go further: to the knowledge of the love of the Lord Jesus, to union with him.

Thus, the testimony of the Saints, and of the Church herself, is that the perseverance in praying the Rosary, especially through times of both consolation and dryness, is the path to a deeper prayer life—to contemplation of God, to growth in virtue, especially faith, hope and charity, and thus in holiness. For good reason, therefore, the Blessed Mother appeared to the three shepherd children of Fatima in 1917 asked them, and through them asked us, to pray the Rosary for peace in the world. Such peace is a gift of God that begins in the human heart and spreads outward to others. It is a gift we must ask for, both for ourselves and for those who won’t ask. In this way we unite ourselves to His redemptive mission as Our Lady did, and help Him accomplish it toward those who are alive today.
