Dear Altar Servers,

Thank you so much for all of your hard work and service at the table of God, otherwise known as the altar. Your service has been so helpful this last year to Deacon Bryan and Fr. Kevin. Your service has been very helpful at each mass that you have served. I want to especially thank those who served during Holy Week and Easter Sunday. Those services are always so beautiful and require so much help from the servers.

May God continue to grant you an abundance of blessings through your service to the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul. May He give you a deeper sense of love through your ministry at the altar and may you know a deeper love for Jesus as you serve the church and the people of God. Amen

FAITH AND NEWNESS AND LOVE

Happy Easter! Happy Fifth Sunday of Easter, to be specific, but Happy Easter just the same! The Church, in its wisdom, knows the glory of the Resurrection cannot be contained in just one day, or one week, or one month, not even in the multi-week Easter season of each year's Liturgical Calendar. The glory of the Resurrection continues to this day, but it continues even further - into eternity.

Thus, today's readings are a kind of roadmap for us impatient children of God, sitting here with our "Are we there yet?" attitudes. Luke, writing about the first missionary journey of Paul in the Acts of the Apostles, John at Patmos writing his visions in the Book of Revelation, and the same John sharing his recollections of Jesus at the Last Supper, give us a few directives to help us get to where we hope to be going, and to reassure us while we are getting there.

Paul tells the disciples the hard truth: "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." Faith requires perseverance and, unfortunately, too many decide the journey is too hard, failing to recognize the glory that awaits those who do persevere.

John's vision in Revelation reminds us of that glory, a new Jerusalem where we, the bride, will be adorned for our husband, Jesus Christ, risen and ascended and seated on His glorious throne. Then John tells us something that should bring us joy: "God's dwelling is with the human race." That's right, God will be with us! We lowly creatures who have believed and have faith and persevere will belong to God and be with God, who will "make all things new."

Jesus tells us plainly in John's Gospel how we get to that point: "love one another." Jesus says this is a new commandment, but hasn't God been telling us to love one another all through the books of the Old Testament? The difference, the newness, is in Jesus' next line: "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

How Jesus has loved us is everything here. Completely. Selflessly. Despite His divinity, becoming human for us. Despite His humanity, becoming heavenly food for us. Despite His greatness so far above us, becoming a sacrifice for us to save us from our sins. Jesus loved us so much that He laid down his life for us, making "all things new." Jesus is calling us to love others so much that we would be willing to do the same. The reward, then, is that newness bestowed on us in His heavenly presence forever. The road may be long and difficult, but please, dear Lord, grant us the grace we need to get there.

PRAYER FOR OUR NEWLY ELECTED POPE LEO XIV

Almighty Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I pray that you would send the Holy Spirit to guide Pope Leo XIV in his ministry as Supreme Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. May he live up to the expectation of the pontificate of Leo XIII, may he be gifted with an increase of greater wisdom and understanding to lead the church. May you protect him from harm. May he look at his ministry from all sides and weigh all of the arguments in the mind of Jesus Christ. May you give him consolation when he is feeling down from the burden of his office. May those who work for and with him give him sound and holy advice. May you protect him from any kinds of falsehood and grant him strength to overcome sins. May he truly be a source of unity in this time of great need in our Church. And may you bring an abundance of blessings to our Church throughout his pontificate.

Amen.

PASTORS CORNER ON POPE LEO XIV OUR NEW POPE

So, I am sure by now that everyone knows that we have a new pope. Wow, what a blessing! The very first American born pope! I did not see that coming, neither did the press, because he was not on any list that they posted. Before being elected pope, he was known as Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost. Pope Leo XIV was born September 14, 1955 in Chicago, Illinois, US. His alma mater are Villanova University, Catholic Theological Union, and Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas. His motto is "illo uno unum" (In the one Christ we are one)

It is important to note the name that the pope picks says volumes about his character. In this case it means that he intends to continue the work of Pope Leo XIII. Pope Leo XIII, who was head of the Catholic Church from 1878 to 1903, laid the foundation for modern Catholic social thought, most famously with his 1891 encyclical Rerum Novarum, which addressed workers' rights and capitalism at the dawn of the industrial age. He criticized both laissez-faire capitalism and state-centric socialism, giving shape to a distinctly Catholic vein of economic teaching. Now another thing about Pope Leo XIII is that he was the pope who had a vision of heaven and hell. He passed out on the floor for three minutes, and to the cardinals who were present they thought that he was dead. During this time he was brought to heaven before God and Jesus seated on the throne. Satan appeared and asked God for 100 years in which time God could not directly intervene, however the Blessed Virgin Mary can, and he could work to destroy the Catholic Church. After Satan left, Jesus told Leo XIII to pen the St. Michael the Archangel prayer that we pray after every mass. Pope Leo XIII also penned a minor exorcism prayer with a longer form of the St. Michael Prayer in it. (By the way you will not hear this last part in the liberal media who proclaimed Leo XIV "our new woke pope") So this shows that our newly elected Pope Leo XIV has some big shoes to fill and that he wants to carry on the Church's social teaching and especially the idea of social justice in our world today, but that also he will be a moderate pope who will work to hear both sides. He is known for this while a bishop in Peru. This also means that he should be working to carry out the works of God to counter the works of the Devil, as Leo XIII did. I am praying that he will live up to the last part since the world is so much in the clutches of sin and the devil. Even though the 100 years of the devil's free reign may be ended it is obvious that the state of the world right now is more away from God than ever before. So we need Jesus more than ever before.

Biography of Robert Francis Prevost, Pope Leo XIV

Prior to his election as Pope Leo XIV, Robert Francis, Cardinal Prevost, was Prefect of the Dicastery for the Bishops. Here you can find the biography of the 267th Bishop of Rome.

By Vatican News

The first Augustinian Pope, Leo XIV is the second Roman Pontiff - after Pope Francis - from the Americas. Unlike Jorge Mario Bergoglio, however, the 69-year-old Robert Francis Prevost is from the northern part of the continent, though he spent many years as a missionary in Peru before being elected head of the Augustinians for two consecutive terms.

First Augustinian Pope

The new Bishop of Rome was born on September 14, 1955, in Chicago, Illinois, to Louis Marius Prevost, of French and Italian descent, and Mildred Martínez, of Spanish descent. He has two brothers, Louis Martín and John Joseph.

He spent his childhood and adolescence with his family and studied first at the Minor Seminary of the Augustinian Fathers and then at Villanova University in Pennsylvania, where in 1977 he earned a Degree in Mathematics and also studied Philosophy.

On September 1 of the same year, Prevost entered the novitiate of the Order of Saint Augustine (O.S.A.) in Saint Louis, in the Province of Our Lady of Good Counsel of Chicago, and made his first profession on September 2, 1978. On August 29, 1981, he made his solemn vows.

The future Pontiff received his theological education at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. At the age of 27, he was sent by his superiors to Rome to study Canon Law at the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum).

In Rome, he was ordained a priest on June 19, 1982, at the Augustinian College of Saint Monica by Archbishop Jean Jadot, then pro-president of the Secretariat for Non-Christians, which later became the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue and then the Dicastery for Interreligious Dialogue.

Prevost obtained his licentiate in 1984 and the following year, while preparing his doctoral thesis, was sent to the Augustinian mission in Chulucanas, Piura, Peru (1985–1986). In 1987, he defended his doctoral thesis on "The Role of the Local Prior in the Order of Saint Augustine" and was appointed vocation director and missions director of the Augustinian Province of "Mother of Good Counsel" in Olympia Fields, Illinois (USA).

Mission in Peru

The following year, he joined the mission in Trujillo, also in Peru, as director of the joint formation project for Augustinian candidates from the vicariates of Chulucanas, Iquitos, and Apurímac.

Over the course of eleven years, he served as prior of the community (1988–1992), formation director (1988–1998), and instructor for professed members (1992–1998), and in the Archdiocese of Trujillo as judicial vicar (1989–1998) and professor of Canon Law, Patristics, and Moral Theology at the Major Seminary "San Carlos y San Marcelo." At the same time, he was also entrusted with the pastoral care of Our Lady Mother of the Church, later established as the parish of Saint Rita (1988–1999), in a poor suburb of the city, and was parish administrator of Our Lady of Monserrat from 1992 to 1999.

In 1999, he was elected Provincial Prior of the Augustinian Province of “Mother of Good Counsel” in Chicago, and two and a half years later, the ordinary General Chapter of the Order of Saint Augustine, elected him as Prior General, confirming him in 2007 for a second term.

In October 2013, he returned to his Augustinian Province in Chicago, serving as director of formation at the Saint Augustine Convent, first councilor, and provincial vicar—roles he held until Pope Francis appointed him on November 3, 2014, as Apostolic Administrator of the Peruvian Diocese of Chiclayo, elevating him to the episcopal dignity as Titular Bishop of Sufar.

He entered the Diocese on November 7, in the presence of Apostolic Nuncio James Patrick Green, who ordained him Bishop just over a month later, on December 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, in the Cathedral of Saint Mary.

His episcopal motto is “In Illo uno unum”—words pronounced by Saint Augustine in a sermon on Psalm 127 to explain that “although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one.”

Bishop of Chiclayo, Peru, from 2015 to 2023

On September 26, 2015, he was appointed Bishop of Chiclayo by Pope Francis. In March 2018, he was elected second vice-president of the Peruvian Episcopal Conference, where he also served as a member of the Economic Council and president of the Commission for Culture and Education.

In 2019, Pope Francis appointed him a member of the Congregation for the Clergy (July 13, 2019), and in 2020, a member of the Congregation for Bishops (November 21). Meanwhile, on April 15, 2020, he was also appointed Apostolic Administrator of the Peruvian Diocese of Callao.

Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops

On January 30, 2023, the Pope called him to Rome as Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and President of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America, promoting him to the rank of Archbishop.

Created Cardinal in 2024

Pope Francis created him Cardinal in the Consistory of September 30 that year and assigned him the Diaconate of Saint Monica. He officially took possession of it on January 28, 2024.

As head of the Dicastery, he participated in the Pope’s most recent Apostolic Journeys and in both the first and second sessions of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on synodality, held in Rome from October 4 to 29, 2023, and from October 2 to 27, 2024, respectively.

Meanwhile, on October 4, 2023, Pope Francis appointed him as a member of the Dicasteries for Evangelization (Section for First Evangelization and New Particular Churches), for the Doctrine of the Faith, for the Eastern Churches, for the Clergy, for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life, for Culture and Education, for Legislative Texts, and of the Pontifical Commission for the Vatican City State.

Finally, on February 6 of this year, the Argentine Pope promoted him to the Order of Bishops, granting him the title of the Suburbicarian Church of Albano.

Three days later, on February 9, he celebrated the Mass presided over by Pope Francis in St. Peter’s Square for the Jubilee of the Armed Forces, the second major event of the Holy Year of Hope.

During the most recent hospitalization of his predecessor at the “Gemelli” hospital, Prevost presided over the Rosary for Pope Francis’s health in Saint Peter’s Square on March 3.

Here is another interesting bit of info. I was just given from a genealogist named Jari Honora.

Robert Francis Prevost, now Leo XIV, was named the first American pope of the Catholic Church on Thursday - and his lineage traces back to New Orleans, according to Jari Honora, a local genealogist and historian.

When Honora heard the last name “Prevost,” he assumed Leo XIV’s roots could be Quebecois or even Acadian.

“It turns out that his mother’s family is entirely from New Orleans,” Honora said.

In less than an hour, Honora - who works for The Historic New Orleans Collection - was able to track down the pope’s roots in the 7th Ward. Our Holy Father, has creole of color roots from New Orleans on his mother’s side. What a great connection to our local population. They left New Orleans and went to Chicago between 1910 and 1912. His grandparents were married in 1887 at Our Lady of the Sacred Heart on Annette Street. In 1900, his grandparents owned and live at 1933 North Prieur Street, a site taken by the Claiborne overpass.

In prior interviews, Pope Leo XIV said he was open to a vocation to the priesthood because neighborhood priests were always in and out of his childhood home, as his mother often fed them.

“Now we know why her cooking was so good.”
