Reflection - 3rd Sunday Year-A

Today, the church enjoins us to draw closer to Christ the real light. This is in order that the reality of our life might become fully manifested. This is also, in order that the shadows that dominate our lives might diminish. Therefore, the church exalts us not to be content with the physical lights. Rather, we should seek and walk in the light of God, the good news. This is the light which draws us to Christ.

In the study of formation of shadows in optical physics, it is known that as an object draws closer to light, its shadow diminishes and it becomes real. Whereas, the farther away it moves from light, the longer its shadow becomes. The good news has the potential to cast off our shadows. It is, "Christ who lives in us." (Gal 2, 20). Wherever there is the light of God, darkness and quarrels disappear. Also, despair, fears, anger, greed, betrayal, lying, cheating, lust, and all other vices disappear. Wherever the light of the good news shines, "the people who lived in darkness see a great light." Because Jesus is the joy of our salvation. Therefore, if we follow, and come closer to Christ, the light, then: "In His light, we shall see light" (Ps. 36, 9).
