Gathering Hymn:

There's a wideness in God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice, which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption, In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members, In the sorrows of the head.

There is welcome for the sinner, and a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior, there is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands, Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations, In that upper home of bliss.

The Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I ask Blessed Mary ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

First Reading

A reading from the Book of Exodus

Ex 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:

"I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments. "You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain. "Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.

"Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

1 Cor 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters:

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Reading

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jn 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow)

and by the Holy Spirit was Incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

SPX /St. Vincent de Paul Ministry to the Poor

WAYS TO HELP

No matter how much or how little time you have, if you have the desire, we can find a way for you to help others!

- Pray for the Ministry and those who seek our help
- Answer the phone at the church office and collect information from those seeking help
- Help with data entry
- With another member, conduct interviews (currently by phone or zoom) to assess financial needs of clients, provide information about available resources; and determine if financial aid for food, rent or utilities will be provided
- Make a Donation

No experience necessary! All you need is the desire to join with other parishioners for the love of God, following Christ's model to care for those in need.

The Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Lenten Crosses

During Lent, we strive to offer prayers and sacrifices by joining them to the sacrifice of Christ's cross. You are invited to share your struggles, prayers, intentions, sacrifices, and petitions with God by writing them on these crosses and placing them in the baskets on the altar steps where they will remain during Lent. As we show gratitude for the sacrifice Jesus made and look forward to the joy of His Resurrection, we know that He walks with us as we walk with Him during this time.

Office of the Archbishop

February 15, 2024

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

I pray that your Lenten journey has been a time of drawing closer to Christ and responding to his invitation to conversion.

As we identify an area of our life that needs change, we can be assured of God's help for us to face our weakness and experience a change of heart. Lent should include standing before our merciful God and asking for his forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, better known as Confession.

Please be reminded that a priest will be available in every church in the Archdiocese of New Orleans for the next 3 Wednesdays (March 6, March 13, and March 20) from 5:00 PM -6:30 PM. The heart of Jesus is open and he invites you to know and accept his mercy.

Whether we have been to Confession recently, or perhaps it has been many years, now is the time to know that his heart is open and eager to forgive. Pope Francis reminds us, "In Confession, Jesus welcomes us with all our sinfulness, to give us a new heart, capable of loving as he loves."

Let us remember one another in prayer as we continue this journey through Lent to the new life of Easter.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

Easter Flower Collection

The flowers and plants that will decorate our church at Easter are a sign of our joy in the Resurrection of Christ and our hope in the resurrection of those who have gone before us.

We invite you to remember your deceased family members and friends with a donation for our Easter decorations. The memorials received by March 17 will be included in the Easter Sunday bulletin. Donations after that date will be gratefully accepted but will not be in print until after Easter. Donations can be made online or by using the envelopes located near the entry.

SPX CENTENARIANS

St. Pius X Parish is a truly special place, filled with parishioners of all ages. We are blessed to have plenty of families with young children, and we are also uniquely blessed to have a handful of parishioners who have been with this parish - and on this earth - longer than most. We're calling them our SPX Centenarians. They are a group of parishioners born 100 years ago or more! We recently asked these lovely ladies to share their stories with us, including why they love St. Pius X Parish. Please take a copy of their stories found on the table near the main entrance to Church. Additionally, some of our Centenarians were interviewed for the February 3rd issue of the Clarion Herald. Please look for a copy in Church or read the article online. We will also be featuring these women in upcoming issues of the SPX Parish Press email newsletter.
