Serving the People of Westborough Since 1870

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. Mt. 15:28

In today's bulletin we have a painting depicting the enigmatic narrative of Christ's interaction with a Gentile (non-Jewish) woman from Canaan. At first, Christ admonishes her by saying he is here to help "the lost sheep of Israel." However, after their interaction involving various metaphors (dogs symbolize faith), he decides to cure her daughter after her display of great faith. The Dutch painter Lastman sets up a classic Baroque scene in the form of a triangle with Christ at the pinnacle. In the background we can see a figure in a wheelchair with others passing through the city gate. This can be contrasted with the figure on the right; a well-dressed man holding a large book. Lastman is likely suggesting that those with the greatest faith are the ones seeking Christ, whereas the man on the right, who is a Pharisee critical of Christ, is the one with the least faith. Therefore, even those furthest away from Christ need only to have faith and seek him out to gain access to the divine.

WELCOME MINISTRY BEGINS

“Hospitality is...the creation of a free space where strangers can enter and become friends.”

Henri Nouwen

Welcoming the stranger raises our awareness and attentiveness to meet the needs of our neighbors with open minds and hearts. Jesus himself has commanded us to “love one another as I have loved you.”

For many years, St. Luke's is known in our community as a welcoming and charitable parish as we have welcomed strangers and friends alike. With the growth of our parish family - in number and cultural varieties - we are compelled to joyfully extend our “welcome” in new and exciting ways!

Our new Welcome Ministry team will take a fresh perspective of “welcome” working with our St. Luke's staff and ministries and across all aspects of our church – from the way we greet and onboard newcomers, to how we enhance our “welcome” across our liturgy, ministries, programs, buildings and grounds.

And that's just the beginning! Come and be part of this exciting new ministry as we build upon our welcoming hospitality and works of mercy. Like the many colors and textures of our beautiful Church rectory garden, our parish family too has uniquely gifted people and families growing together in unity. Let us put our gifts to bring joy and welcome to those who enter through our doors of mercy. Your ideas, talents, and gifts are welcome!

As we gear up for Welcome Weekend, Sept 9th & 10th, hands, hearts and smiles are needed! Come help and reach out to Chris 4farmers@verizon.net or Leslie leslie.a.buffo@gmail.com or Kathy (kathyrichov@gmail.com) and Kevin (kjboyd@gmail.com) to be part of this exciting new chapter!

Blessings in Christ,

Fr. Diego Buriticá

A college graduating class leaves behind the security of school and focuses on the possibilities of the future. It can be a daring adventure as students send out resumes, go to interviews and dream of happiness and great careers. Some have the ability to think big and willingly take on new challenges. An open mind and desire to succeed can lead to great and wonderful things.

The woman who approaches Jesus has an open heart and a great desire for grace. She makes her request of Jesus and is persistent because she knows that she will not be denied. The Lord acknowledges her courage and her faith and grants her request.

Believing in the Gospel means seeing the world through the eyes of the Lord, It means we love others and treat them as we want to be treated. It means that we do not go into the world empty handed, but rather we are armed with confidence. Faith presents us with many challenging opportunities, including feed the hungry, comfort the dying, bury the dead, and admonish the sinner. Giving witness to our beliefs and practicing what we preach are the first steps to living the life of a disciple. Choose God, choose to do what is right and there will be no limit to the great and wonderful things you—and He—can accomplish.

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." (Romans 11:29) God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.
