TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"THEN IN ANGER HIS MASTER HANDED HIM OVER TO THE TORTURERS UNTIL HE SHOULD PAY BACK THE WHOLE DEBT. SO WILL MY HEAVENLY FATHER DO TO YOU, UNLESS EACH OF YOU FORGIVES YOUR BROTHER FROM YOUR HEART." MATTHEW 18: 34-35

This week's painting attempts to directly capture the scene described in today's gospel. Explained as an 'unusual work' by one art historian because it blends two contemporary styles [Northern (Flemish) Renaissance and Italian Renaissance techniques], it depicts the moment when the king reprimands and punishes his "unmerciful servant" for not showing the same mercy he had received in the forgiving of his debts. We can tell this is the moment because the king appears quite angry with his furrowed brow and his awkward hand gesture pointing to the servant who has his hands, fingers interlocked, in a pleading gesture. Additionally, in the background we can see the in-between scene of the servant having his more minor debtor locked away in prison. This genre of painting is called a moralizing painting because it contains a moral message, which certainly reminds us of the familiar line we know well: "And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us."

Sheila, our fifth grade teacher's 8-year old daughter, wanted a puppy and she was begging at every opportunity and promising to take care of it. Knowing full well it would end up being her responsibility, the teacher made arrangements with her brother to dog-sit for a week while he was on vacation. The first few days went pretty well, but by the fourth day 'doggy fatigue' was setting in. It seems that the young dog enthusiast failed to account for multiple daily walks, feedings, bathing, playtime and 'cleaning up'. At the end of the week, Sheila informed her mom that she had changed her mind and would prefer a goldfish instead.

Faith is a commitment to a way of life, not just a set of intellectual beliefs. More than just accepting the idea that Jesus is the Savior, faith means that we continue to forgive so that we live by God's standards, even when it is demanding, inconvenient or difficult. Forgiveness and reconciliation are the basis of the Christian life and if we compromise them, we compromise our life, both temporal and eternal.

We live our faith when we follow the teaching and example of Jesus, when we reach out to those who have hurt us and offer forgiveness over and over and over. We have the Church, the sacraments and the example of the saints—all of which are part of our community of faith that strengthens and supports our baptismal commitment to follow the Lord. There can be no 'faith fatigue'. Our God sets the example; our faith is renewed and strengthened when we put it into practice.
