A Roman Catholic Community

Serving the People of Westborough Since 1870

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THUS THE LAST WILL BE FIRST AND THE FIRST WILL BE LAST. MATTHEW 20:16

Today's painting closely follows today's gospel parable. The painter, who was in Rembrandt's circle and often emulated him, sets his scene in 17th century Europe and hints at some of the questions we might have regarding this parable. In the center we see a young man, his right hand out with a coin (his payment received), and his left arm extended the opposite way pointing to those who were previously paid. He is clearly upset (with the men behind him) with his head slightly tilted as if both beseeching (hand turned up) and protesting at the same time (hand turned down and pointing). The owner is taken aback by the protest and gestures both defensively (against the protester) and benevolently (toward the laborers he already paid). Koninck portrays the workers who worked the shortest time in a way that suggests that we cannot understand the entire story, including the motive of his generosity. Were the late recipients somehow disabled or elderly? Perhaps they were not chosen by other employers for other reasons. The painting, like the parable, makes clear that we can never fully understand the generosity of the vineyard owner, just as we cannot fully understand God's grace.

RCIA Inquiry Session

Weekly Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) inquiry sessions begin Tuesday evening October 3 at 7:30 PM in room 23 of the Parish

Center. If you are not already a member of the Catholic faith community (or perhaps no Christian faith community), this is an excellent opportunity to learn about the Christian faith in the Catholic tradition. All are welcomed to attend without any obligation or pressure to “become Catholic.” For those who choose, RCIA can provide a path to one or more of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist).

If you are a confirmed Catholic having received all your sacraments, please gently mention RCIA to any people you meet who you sense may be receiving a calling from God to explore Christianity in the Catholic faith tradition. We would be delighted to meet them!

There is no need to register – inquirers are welcomed to just go to the parish center and walk into room 23 where we will look forward to meeting you! For more information on RCIA at St. Luke’s, please contact Bob Thompson via phone at 508-341-7677 or via email at bob_thomps@hotmail.com. Remember that at the end of our time on earth, our faith is our most precious possession.

When the long-time pastor of our parish died, many people remembered him as a generous man. Story after story was told of how much he helped families, supplying food, cars, clothes, jobs and tuition in their time of need. He came from a wealthy family, and he used his own money to make a difference in the lives of parishioners, neighbors and those who came knocking at the door. More importantly, he gave his time and a listening ear. People felt understood and renewed and it was this gift that made a difference.

The Gospel parable of the owner hiring workmen is a model of generosity. The owner hires workers at different times of the day, yet pays each one equally, because wages are not just a luxury. For his workers, it means food on the table and a roof over a family's head. His generosity is not about money, but about respecting the dignity of the workers.

Generosity can be measured in many ways and offered in many forms. Simply handing someone money might be generous; but giving time and attention is even more so. Such generosity can renew the spirit, create a bond, restore dignity, and inspire hope. Give what counts and you too can make a difference.

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." (Matthew 20:16) You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.
