FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

AND THIS IS THE VERDICT, THAT THE LIGHT CAME INTO THE WORLD, BUT PEOPLE PREFERRED DARKNESS TO LIGHT, BECAUSE THEIR WORKS WERE EVIL. FOR EVERYONE WHO DOES WICKED THINGS HATES THE LIGHT AND DOES NOT COME TOWARD THE LIGHT, SO THAT HIS WORKS MIGHT NOT BE EXPOSED. BUT WHOEVER LIVES THE TRUTH COMES TO THE LIGHT, SO THAT HIS WORKS MAY BE CLEARLY SEEN AS DONE IN GOD. JN. 3: 19-21

Today's gospel for Cycle B (and next weeks) is more abstract and does not contain a story that lends itself to direct imagery as is more often the case, so today's artwork relates to gospel's symbolism. Above, is a famous type of mosaic art that depicts a particular theological message about Jesus: Christ as Pantokrator (Greek for "all powerful"). It shows Christ in a formal pose as the almighty ruler of the universe. Expressions range from paint and fresco to mosaic (shown here). Due to its three-dimensional quality, mosaic creates a beautiful otherworldly quality with the unique way it refracts and reflects light. This example is in an apse (half dome, often above and behind the altar). Christ is shown holding a book in his left hand and makes a blessing gesture with his right (from which we can derive two additional meanings). In a single gesture he is also signing his abbreviated name in Greek letters "ICXC" (IC = Jesus, XC=Christ), which are also echoed above him to the right and left. Additionally, the two fingers he holds up symbolize his perfect dual nature: all man and all God. The book he holds is open to John 8:12 part of which reads "I am the light of the world," which the gold mosaic visually reinforces.

BAKERS NEEDED FOR ANNUAL (SR. ADULTS) SPRING BAKE SALE MARCH 23 – 24

Baked goods can be dropped off in the Vestibule of the church by 3:00pm on Saturday March 23rd

ALL BAKED GOODS ARE GREATLY

The language of faith is love. Some speak it so well that their example inspires others to lives of generous service. Mother Teresa spoke it well, as did Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II. Others speak it too, but are perhaps not as well known, people like our parents and families, pastors, teachers, fellow parishioners, friends and neighbors. God speaks it too. And when God spoke, the Word became Flesh.

Wherever the Gospel is preached, the message is the same. To rulers and peasants, to refugees of war and to promoters of peace, to the high and mighty and the poor and lowly, to the living and to the dead, the message never changes. God is rich in mercy; God loves people; God so loved the world that He sent His only Son. The good news is for everyone, of all times and all places.

It can be easy to doubt God's love, especially when we are aware of our sinfulness and failings. But God's love is unconditional. We do not have to earn it, or work for it, or be someone to receive it. God's love is a gift offered to everyone. It is offered to saints and sinners, to the holy and the not so holy. The cross is the sign of God's love for us. On it, He gives you His life: through it, He gives you His love; by it, He gives you eternal life. The language of love is easy to learn and understand. Just open your heart and mind to hear the good news.

CATHOLIC MEN'S CONFERENCE 2024

Saturday, March 16 at the DCU Center in Worcester - Only two weeks away from this great gathering! Join hundreds of men to pray, listen, reflect and share their faith with each other. Wonderful speakers, celebration of sacraments, and a variety of booths. Jesus said where two or three are gathered in His name, He will be there! Registration fee increases this week, register as soon as possible. For more information and to register, look for the brochures in your parish or check out our website: catholicmenworc.com.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son..." (John 3:16) Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given to us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but

He does ask that we are grateful and generous with our God-given gifts. That we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

1-4 pm

We invite you to join us on Friday, March 15th at 7 PM at St. Mary's Parish in Shrewsbury for an evening of contemplative Taizé Prayer, embracing the spirit of Lent. This ecumenical service includes communal singing, scriptural reading, prayer, and silence. Taizé prayer originates from a small village in France. The service is held in a candle-lit church, creating a peaceful, sacred space. It is known for its international, ecumenical monastic community founded as a place of reconciliation, kindness of heart, and simplicity after World War II.

Prayerful STATIONS OF THE CROSS was followed by a joy-filled Lenten meal with our St. Luke's parish family this past Friday, 3/1. Thanks to our children for participating as readers and candle bearers and the many parishioners who donated time, talent and food to Westborough Food Pantry and The Bridge making the night such a blessing!

Mark your calendars for Friday, 3/22 at 6pm for the next Stations of the Cross! Readers and helpers are welcome to help again! Chris

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent, your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary. Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
