MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age. Mt. 28: 18-20

For Trinity Sunday we have a magnificent altarpiece titled Adoration of the Trinity painted by the German master Albrecht Dürer. Painted soon after he returned from Italy, the Italian influence is clear in part due to the composition (a single-piece altarpiece) and vibrant colors. The scene depicts an idealized moment after the Last Judgment where all present below Christ have attained eternal life with God as described by St. Augustine in his famous text The City of God. In the upper central portion of the painting, God the Father presents to us his crucified Son, Jesus Christ by holding up the two ends of the cross amongst a background of flowing fabric. Above the Father is a dove; the traditional representation of the Holy Spirit in art. In the foreground above to the left of Christ is the Virgin Mary in her traditional blue across from St. John the Baptist. Looking carefully around the painting you will see various attributes associated with famous people from the bible and saints; like Moses with his Ten Commandments, St. Catherine (of Alexandria) and her wheel, St. Agnes and her lamb among many other recognizable people. In the bottom right-hand corner (in an unsurprising act of hubris), there is a self-portrait of Dürer holding a cartouche that states he made this painting in 1511.

Congratulations to all those who received their First Communion at St. Luke's on May 4th! It was a joyous day filled with smiles and love of the Eucharist. We had 25 First Communicants at the 10am Mass with Fr. Sagar and 22 First Communicants at the 1pm Mass with Fr. Diego. What a blessing! We look forward to having them receive Jesus in the Eucharist at all the Masses now!

As a reminder, all First Communion students are welcome to join us Sunday, June 2, the Feast of Corpus Christi at the 9am Mass to be recognized by the parish.
