

SAINT LUKE THE EVANGELIST PARISH

Westborough, MA

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 14, 2024

“Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits.” Mk 6:7

Today's work of art titled The Apostle's Farewell is a slightly unusual painting. There are 12 figures (see if you can find them all) in the foreground and middle ground who are preparing to depart the scene dressed in 15th century travel clothing. This painting fits well with the theme of today's gospel passage since the artist places the scene in contemporary (15th century) Bamberg, Bavaria (Germany). Three monumental buildings in the background tell us we are in Bamberg (and not 1st cen. Jerusalem). From the left on the hill there is the medieval castle Altenburg, in the center the distinctive four-towered Bamberg Cathedral, and on the right the Michaelsberg Abbey on a hill. In the foreground the Apostle's are all saying goodbye to one another as they begin their evangelizing mission (apostle in Greek literally means "one who is sent off"). The artist's placement of the gospel story in a contemporary setting can be read as his interpretation of our role in the history of salvation – it is relevant in all times and places.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

St Luke's Outreach is partnering with Westborough Youth & Family Services to collect school supplies for local kids in need. There will be a drop off box in the Parish Center, and donations will be accepted through Monday, August 19th.

Supplies needed include: Backpacks for all ages, Ticonderoga pencils, Scissors, Crayola Crayons 16 & 24 count, Crayola colored pencils, glue sticks, Markers - washable Crayola thick & thin, Pencil boxes, 3 Ring Binders, Pens - black & blue, Sharpie Markers, Pocket Folders, Notebooks- Subject spiral Composition Notebooks, Highlighters and Erasers.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Nan Ford,
St. Luke Outreach

At the community college, a local band put on a mini-concert to publicize their upcoming appearance. They performed over the lunch hours in the cafeteria. Many students got up and danced, or clapped, nodding their heads in rhythm with the band. In an article in the newspaper, one student was quoted as saying, "With music, you just have to dance. It is not a spectator event."

Jesus sends the Apostles out, two by two, to try their hand at proclaiming the Gospel. It was not a time to watch and see, but rather a time to say and do. They expelled demons, anointed the sick and cured many. The Kingdom of God comes in power, moving aside anything that stands in its way. It is music to the soul that causes its listeners to proclaim, to love, and to serve. Faith is not a spectator sport!

God calls each one of us. From the moment of your Baptism, you are given spiritual gifts to be used for the sake of the whole community. You are to serve as best you can, advancing the cause of the Gospel and announcing in all you say and do that the Kingdom is at hand. By word and deed, we live the Gospel, witnessing to the saving power of grace, and the joy of faith that gives life purpose, meaning and power. Are you still on the sidelines watching? It's time to be part of the mission, time to find and use your gifts. Pray, work, serve, and lead. It's time to be His disciple.

James Gaffney

Saint of the Week

Kateri Tekakwitha

1656–1680

Feast Day—July 14

Kateri Tekakwitha is revered today as the first Native American saint. Only 24 when she died, Kateri is an example of purity, prayer, and most especially endurance in faith. Born in 1656, in a Mohawk village in what is now upstate New York, she was an outsider. Her mother was an Algonquin who was catechized and baptized Roman Catholic by French missionaries in TroisRivières, east of Montreal. Her mother was captured by the Mohawks in a raid and was taken to be the wife of the Mohawk chief Kenneronkwa near present-day Auriesville, New York.

At an early age, Kateri's village suffered a severe smallpox epidemic, which killed her parents and left her scarred and her vision impaired. Her name, "Tekakwitha", means "she who bumps into things." She was adopted by her Mohawk relatives who survived the epidemic, and the survivors of the plague moved to the new village of Caughnawaga.

Like her mother, Tekakwitha sought out instruction from Catholic missionaries that led to her eventual baptism at the age of 19 and her taking the name "Kateri" after St. Catherine of Siena on Easter Sunday 1676.

Kateri faced severe obstacles from the Mohawk tribal leaders, as well as from her adopted family. On Holy Days, Kateri received no food, since she prayed rather than work in the fields.

When she walked to chapel, she was cursed and pelted with stones. Nevertheless, she persevered. She refused to marry despite pressure from her tribe. According to Fr. Pierre Cholenec, a Jesuit priest who was a mentor, Kateri said, "I have deliberated enough. For a long time, my decision on what I will do has been made. I have consecrated myself entirely to Jesus, son of Mary, I have chosen Him for husband and He alone will take me for wife."

The French missionaries encouraged her to leave her hostile environment and travel to Canada to the St. Francois Xavier mission. Her uncle opposed this move, because he was suspicious of the French and feared it was a ruse to depopulate the village. Even so, Kateri prevailed and traveled the 200 miles by foot and canoe to Canada, where she lived a devout and exemplary life. Called the "Lily of the Mohawks," she is a symbol of chastity and purity as she sought to do penance to commit her life to God. When she died due to failing health, witnesses noted that her face was miraculously transformed so that all her smallpox scars disappeared. Over the years, people have asked Kateri for divine intercession when suffering from serious illnesses, and their prayers have been answered. Her legacy of healing continues. St. Kateri Tekakwitha was canonized on October 21, 2012.

A mosaic of St. Kateri Tekakwitha is seen in the Trinity Dome at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8 Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

The Daily EXAMEN is a technique of prayerful reflection on the events of the day in order to detect God's presence and discern his direction for us. The EXAMEN has five simple steps. Many people choose to practice this prayerful review of their day before going to bed.

The EXAMEN is a simple prayer for busy people who are continually seeking to do God's will.

DAILY EXAMEN

Ask God for light.

God, I believe at this quiet moment
I am in your presence and You are now loving
me. Come Holy Spirit.

Give thanks.

God, I acknowledge Your love for me in the various gifts for which I am very grateful. Thanks be to God.

Review the day.

God, help me now to review the events of this day in order to recognize you in all parts of my life. Lord, I want to see.

Face your shortcomings

God, please forgive the times I have fallen short, and strengthen my attempts to follow You. Lord have mercy.

Look toward the day to come.

God, enlighten me so that my future choices praise, reverence, and serve You above all else.
Show me Your way.

Conclude with an Our Father

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent, your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary. Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
