

SAINT LUKE THE EVANGELIST PARISH

Westborough, MA

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 18, 2024

Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. John. 6:53-55

Today's work of art does not attempt to illustrate the scene from today's gospel. Instead, it stresses the theological statement communicated. This is an example of devotional art, meaning it was created to aid people in their prayer life. Often such images were looked at before or during prayer in order to meditate upon particular theological ideas. This Spanish artist was a very devoted Catholic who prayed and fasted while he painted, and always received the Eucharist before he began painting. Here he presents Christ against an abstract golden background evoking a Byzantine icon. Christ is depicted with an inscribed and patterned halo with three sets of triple thin 'tongues of fire' emanating from the top and sides of his head (evoking the Trinity). He holds up his own body in the form of the Eucharist and the chalice containing his blood/wine. The Eucharistic host itself is embossed with an image of the Crucifixion (complete with Mary and John) signaling to the prayerful viewer the ever-present Paschal Mystery that we celebrate at each mass. This image of Christ before an abstract background, combined with his gesture and Eucharistic offering makes tangible the real presence in the host.

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults or RCIA constitutes a path for one to learn more about the Catholic faith, and if sense a calling by God, to prepare for the Sacraments of Initiation into Christ's pilgrim church. We are always happy to meet inquirers and invite inquirers to contact us anytime. For more information on RCIA, please call the St. Luke's secretary, Maria Gasser, at 508-366-5502 or the RCIA Team Lead, Bob Thompson, at 508-341-7677. We are anxious to meet and welcome future inquirers!

SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Here at St. Luke's, we follow the guidelines of the national charter for the Protection of Children and Young People approved by the US Bishops and the policies of the Worcester Diocese in screening those who work with children in our care and in helping victims of abuse find healing. For questions, information or help please contact Judy Audette, Victim Assistance Coordinator for the Diocese of Worcester at 508-929-4361 (direct line and confidential voicemail is available).

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (John 6:56) This line from Scripture is what ultimately separates Catholics from our Protestant brothers and sisters. Jesus is really present in the bread and wine that are consecrated at Holy Mass. It is His actual body and blood that we consume. This is the greatest gift that we can receive. The Eucharist shows us how great of love that Jesus has for each of us.

In our family, there is a long history of kids asking questions that adults simply cannot answer. The questions usually begin with the word 'why' or 'how' and delve into the imponderables of life: questions about the invisible, the unknown, the uncertain or the unusual. The worst questions are those for which there should be an answer, but none exists, at least at that moment. So, here is an imponderable question: How do you explain the unexplainable?

Jesus comes not with a question, but a teaching that causes some confusion and uncertainty. They ask the imponderable question: how can this be? How can He give us His flesh to eat? Jesus does not explain directly. He tells them who He is, where He comes from, and what they must do. His disciples have also expressed their doubts and bewilderment. Jesus simply reminds them of His words and deeds and asks them to have faith and believe in Him.

We can answer this question, not so much in our minds as in our hearts. When we receive the Lord in the Eucharist, are we not drawn to Him? Do we not experience His Presence? Have we not seen what the Lord can do as we live our faith and offer our love? There will always be the skeptics and doubters, and some of that may creep into our minds. Ask the Lord those questions and He will answer you. You will taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

James Gaffney

Saint Bernard Abbot and Doctor of the Church

1090 - 1153

FEAST DAY: AUGUST 20

Known as Bernard of Clairvaux, this French abbot and doctor of the church is considered the second founder of the Cistercians. He entered the relatively new monastery at Citeaux in 1113 with four of his own brothers and 27 friends, and later founded the monastery at Clairvaux, which gave birth to 68 other communities. Despite poor health and his devotion to personal mortification, Bernard was an early Western European rock star: He was consulted by popes and kings, battled heresies, and supported the Second Crusade. The sick and maimed lined the roads he traveled, hoping for a miracle. Dante chose Bernard as his final guide in "Paradiso," at the end of "The Divine Comedy." He is the patron of Gibraltar.
