THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

February 2, 2025

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word..." Lk 2:25-29

Today's image is by the Dutch Baroque master Rembrandt, who brought a special sensitivity to his biblical representations. This is one of his (at least) three substantially different paintings of this story from the Gospel of St. Luke: the Presentation of Jesus (in the temple). According to today's Gospel, the temple priest Simeon had been promised by God that he would not die until he saw the Messiah for himself. Depicted here is that scene, when the Christ Child is presented for the first time at the temple in Jerusalem. The Virgin Mother in blue and Joseph (with the two turtle doves) are looking on as Simeon, who is the first person to recognize the divinity of Christ after the Nativity, sings his 'Song of Praise.' The painting is Baroque not only because of its date, but more so because of the dynamic diagonals in the composition and dramatic lighting. Rembrandt illuminates this important central scene with a beautiful divine light within the cavernous temple dramatically emphasizing the significance of the event. However, Rembrandt makes it difficult to tell whether this divine light is coming from above or emanating from the Christ child himself.

MUSTARD SEED SOUP KITCHEN

Thank you to everyone who recently contributed to the Mustard Seed. St. Luke's parishioners are consistently loving, compassionate and generous. Both those in need and the staff greatly appreciated the meals!

I have been delivering meals prepared by St. Luke's parishioners to the Mustard Seed for a little over 20 years and have found it inspiring and rewarding. I took over the ministry from another parishioner at a time when that parishioner was ready to move on. That time has now arrived for me. It is time to pass this worthwhile ministry on to another parishioner or parishioners. The time commitment is reasonable. Coordinating and delivering occurs six times a year, that is, every other month. However, for the month of July, because so many people are away, we usually collect donations so a meal can be catered.

So, I am offering this ministry to others. During the transition, I am happy to stay on and assist and train whoever takes over until you are comfortable. If anyone is interested or would like to talk about this ministry, please call or email me at 508-212-2748, susanmblack08@gmail.com.

Again, thank you all so much for your time and effort that you have given this wonderful ministry.

May God bless you all!

Susan Black

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Today's feast marks the Presentation of the Lord Jesus in the Temple, forty days after he was born. As the firstborn, he belonged to God. According to the Law, Mary and Joseph were required to take him to the Temple and "redeem" him by paying five shekels. At the same time, the Law required the child's mother to offer sacrifice in order to overcome the ritual impurity brought about by childbirth.

So the feast we celebrate shows a curious turn of events. The Redeemer is redeemed. She who is all-pure presents herself to be purified. Such is the humility of our God. Such is the humility of the Blessed Virgin. They submit to the law even though they are not bound by it.

The drama surrounding Jesus' conception and birth began in the Temple — when the Archangel visited Mary's kinsman, Zechariah the priest. And now the story of Jesus' infancy comes to a fitting conclusion, again in the Temple.

All the readings today concern Jerusalem, the Temple, and the sacrificial rites. The first reading comes from the Prophet Malachi, who called the priests to return to faithful service — and foretold a day when a Messiah would arrive with definitive purification of the priesthood.

Likewise, the Psalm announces to Jerusalem that Jerusalem is about to receive a great visitor. The Psalmist identifies him as "The LORD of hosts ... the king of glory."

There is another curious turn to the Gospel story. The story nowhere mentions Jesus' "redemption," but seems to describe a religious consecration — such as a priest might undergo. Saint Luke tells us that Jesus is "presented" in the Temple, using the same verb that Saint Paul uses to describe the offering of a sacrifice (see Romans 12:1). Another parallel is the Old Testament dedication of Samuel (1 Sam 1:24-27) to the Temple as a priest.

Christ now arrives as the long-awaited priest and redeemer. He is also the sacrifice. Indeed, as his life will show, He is the Temple itself (see John 2:19-21).
