Ways of Being More

In our effort to live the Joy of the Gospel and to be missionary disciples, we must be willing to be challenged and to grow.

At home: Commit to daily prayer and personal accountability. Invite a roommate, your spouse or a friend to walk with you in your pursuit of Christian virtue and holiness. This shared discipleship is a great aid in pursuing missionary discipleship.

In your community: Let your life and your words witness the Joy of the Gospel. Talk to a neighbor or co-worker about your faith. Share your energy and your passion for growing closer to the Lord as a missionary disciple and invite others to evaluate their relationship with God. Commit to regular acts of service that require your time, not just your money.

ST. ANNE CHURCH

Church Cleaning Team #1 – Shirley & Ron Byington

Saints Anne & Joachim

Each year the Church venerates the memory of Saints Anne & Joachim on July 26th. An ancient story dating to the first centuries of the Church's life recalls how Saints Anne & Joachim, like Abraham and Sarah, were scorned by their neighbors because they had no children. Years of longing did not weaken their trust in God, but grief eventually drove Saint Joachim into the wilderness to fast and pray. Saint Anne, remaining at home, dressed in mourning clothes and wept because she had no child of her own. Seeing her mistress distressed, a servant girl reminded Anne to put her trust in God. Saint Anne washed her face, put on her bridal clothes and went to a garden to plead with God for a child. Angels appeared to Saint Anne in her garden and Saint Joachim in the desert, promising that, despite their old age, they would give birth to a child who would be known throughout the world. The new parents ran to meet one another at Jerusalem's Golden Gate, and with a kiss rejoiced in the new life which God had promised would be theirs. Saints Anne and Joachim are powerful intercessors for all married couples, expectant mothers and married couples who are having difficulty conceiving, as well as all who have grown old. U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

Reflection

A sense of entitlement is the world's way of serving – serving so as to be rewarded. But Jesus came to serve not to be served. And as Christians we serve others because that's what Christ did. We respond to the needs of another, without thought of reward or payment because that's what Christ did. We give to another, do for another, because we are Christians, Christ-like people.

Sometimes we may be more like the mother of James and John, thinking there should be at least some "payoff" for hanging around with Jesus! But Jesus reminds us that just being with him isn't enough. Nor is it sufficient to walk beside and admire and quote a risk-taking saintly person. We can do that 'til the cows come home, but greatness doesn't happen by association. The real sign that we're committed to saintly virtues is when we model saintly people. When we do as they do. When we no longer just say the right words, but walk the talk. When we move from words to action. When we are willing to "drink of the cup."

Jesus is completely honest with us. Drinking of the cup, taking a stand, will inevitably lead to suffering. But in Christ, there will come rejoicing too. It took St. James and the other apostles some time to really get all this, but eventually they did embrace the suffering and receive its reward...heaven! Heaven...where all the saints go home!

Bible Reflections

"...come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest awhile." MARK 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.
