The Story of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as “Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.” They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. For centuries the Carmelites have seen themselves as specially related to Mary. Their great saints and theologians have promoted devotion to her and often championed the mystery of her Immaculate Conception. Saint Teresa of Avila called Carmel “the Order of the Virgin.” Saint John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison. Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus believed that Mary cured her from illness. On her First Communion day, Thérèse dedicated her life to Mary. During the last days of her life she frequently spoke of Mary.

Please note: This does not affect Masses that have been previously scheduled.

Feast Date: July 15

Saint of the week

ST. BONAVENTURE

Franciscan doctor of the church, Bonaventure is best known for writing on spirituality and theology. He stressed the importance of emotion in the search for God without denying human reason in examining divine revelation. He became minister general of the Franciscans and demonstrated that simplicity, poverty and imitation of Christ could be balanced with intellectual pursuits. In 1273 he was made cardinal. It is said he refused the traditional red hat and asked papal legates to leave it hanging from a tree.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive!

Did you ever notice that the scholars of the law, the Pharisees and the Sadducees always tried to make things complicated in order to test Jesus? Whenever they did this, what did Jesus do? He asked them a question, told them a simple story or gave them a simple answer. For instance, in today's Gospel reading a scholar asked Jesus how he could receive eternal life. Jesus answered, "What is written in the law?" This was a simple question for the scholar to answer correctly himself and he did. When the scholar tried to complicate it more by asking who is my neighbor, Jesus shared the story of the Good Samaritan. Many times in our lives we do the same thing as this scholar. We make things complicated without even realizing it and we search for answers that are really right in front of our faces. We search for answers from Jesus that He has really already answered for us but we missed it because we were looking for a complicated answer. As Moses shared with the Israelites in the first reading, "this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious or remote for you." This week would be a great time for us to reflect on the questions, "For what answers am I searching? and "Has Jesus already answered it and I missed it?"
